Sacrifices of Canada's war veterans will be remembered on Sunday afternoon when mem-1 bers of Prince Rupert's I.O.D.E. chapters, the Canadian Legion and the Legion Women's Auxil-

Chapter, I.O.D.E., the function will start with a parade from the Canadian Legion hall to the Cenotaph, led by the Prince Rupert Shrine Club Band. At the Cenotaph, wreaths will be laid and an address given by Rev. George Sendall of First Presbyterian Church.

Those taking part will then travel by car to Fairview Cemetery where the graves in the soldiers' plot will be decorated with poppies in honor of their sacrifices.

Mrs. James Stewart, Regent of Queen Mary Chapter will be in charge of the proceedings.
