Diocesan W.A. Session Hears From Delegates

The semi-annual meeting the Caledonia Diocesan Board of the Women's Auxiliary of the Church of England in Canada was held in St. Andrew's Cathedral hall on Wednesday afternoon at which reports of the Do-The afternoon session was opened with prayers by the Rev. B. S. East and returned full of en-Prockter, B.A., B.D.

Writing of the three days spent at the Dominion annual last September in Toronto, Mrs. A. L. Holtby, who attended delegate, brought to those who listened to her report, which in her absence was read by Mrs. Gibson , something of the inspiration she herself received. There

ESCAPE THEME

"Secret Life of Walter Mitty" Showing at Capitol Theatre A contemporary American humorous classic is brought to the screen in "Secret Life of Walter Mitty," technicolor adapttion of James Thurber"s hilarious story, which is the week-end feature at Capitol Theatre. Accented with music and highlighted by an extravaganza of shapely girls, the picture stars Danny Kaye and Virginia Mayo. It is the saga of a highly imaginative young man who hamstrung by the dull routine of daily life as a magazine proofreader and makes escape in day dreaming, one of his dreams becomes a reality and his adventures bring complications and happiness and success. Featured supporting roles are played by Fay Bainter, as a dominating mother; Ann Rutherford, a designing sweetheart, and

T. W. Brown, representing the railway company, told the court that $399 had already been returned and that the balance is to be paid off at the rate of $50 a month.

Mr. Brown intimated that the company was willing to agree to leniency in the matter of sentencing.

Duncan said that the money was used for gambling. The incident occurred on the night of -October 28. He declined to tell the court where the gambling had taken place.
