Things Unforeseen

AFTER A DISASTER, papers are prone to urge that something be done to make tragic occurrences in future practically impossible. It's that way today in Canada, yet it is well to remember that one of the certainties of life is the unexpected.

How, in the construction of a vessel, can an architect defeat the possibility of chance, or craftsmen despite knowledge and skill, preclude hazard? Travel is faster, safer, more comfortable than ever before. There is no comparison between the luxuries now enjoyed and what was offered only a few generations ago. Thousands tour the world, and up to a certain point, with a sense of security. But that feeling, after all, can only go so far. For where ever and whenever you find action, change, responsibility there is also the contingency that nothing can ever foresee.

ANNOUNCEMENT

As an added convenience to our subscribers in Prince Rupert, arrangements are being made to have all subscriptions fall due on the first day of each month. Any assistance our subscribers can give our carriers to facilitate this change will be appreciated by this newspaper.

ROYAL SALUTE—Beneath the ornate arch that spans the front doors of Parliament Buildings, Canada's governor-general, Viscount Alexander, and Lady Alexander receive a royal salute from a three services guard of honor as the first session of the 21st Parliament prepared to open. A few minutes after this Canadian Army photo was taken Viscount Alexander read the Speech from the Throne forecasting legislation to be introduced at the new session. (C.P. Photo)

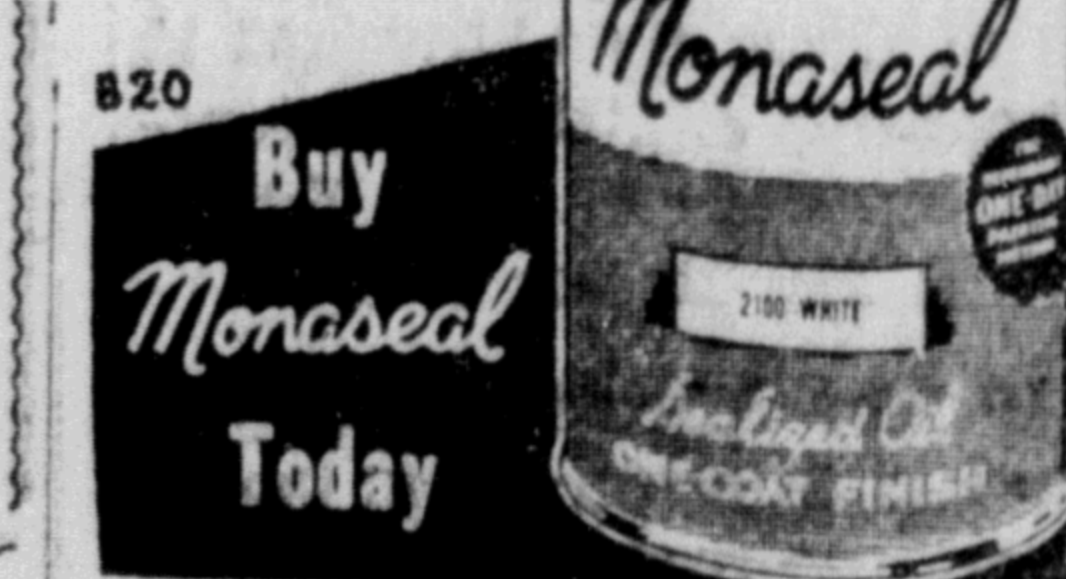

CLOSE PALS—The Biblical lion and lamb had nothing on this pup and pigeon when it comes to lying down together. Tiny, the pup, and Blackie, the pigeon, are bosom pals who sleep, eat and drink together. When the pigeon is disturbed, it nestles up to the pup for protection. The two are pets of Jack Segodnia of Windsor, Ont. (C. P. Photo)

If your subscription is in arrears and you do not receive your paper, please do not blame the publisher, the news boy or the post office. Just do a little straight talking to yourself. Co-operation of subscribers in this regard would be appreciated. It would save a lot of trouble and everybody would be happier. Subscriptions are payable in advance.

... It gives me lovelier, washable walls and actually IT COSTS ME LESS! That's the report from women who have used Monaseal... and they're right! Monaseal is top quality at lower prices than any comparable finish. It covers more wall per can, and dries quickly to a smooth, even finish that is washable... longer lasting. Lovely pastel tints and new deep colors.
