LEATHER BRANDING — President Harry S. Truman autographs the first baseball of American League season at Washington, D.C. The one he tossed out with a left-handed pitch that was recovered by Senators' First Baseman Eddie Robinson. That's Robinson looking over the president's shoulder. The weather was fine and some 31,000 turned out for the Washington-Philadelphia Athletics opener. The Senators took the game by a score of 3-2, scoring the winner in the ninth inning to make the president's prediction come true—that Washington would win by one run.

HIGH PRICED FOOTBALL HELP

EDMONTON (CP)— The executive of Edmonton's western football conference last night announced the names of some high-priced help from the United States who will line up with the club this fall.

Besides Earl Elsey, Los Angeles fullback, who was signed up earlier, Edmonton will have Chuck Finnebach, triple-threat quarter of the Chicago Rockets, 190 pounds; Pat West, 220, fullback, formerly of the New York Giants; Tommy Fears of Los Angeles Dons, end, 225, voted one of the most promising rookies of last year.

Another Dons' alumnus, Bill Radovich, of the Detroit Tigers last year, tips 295 pounds for guard.

BALL TROPHIES ARE PRESENTED

FRANCOIS LAKE—On Saturday evening the Francois Lake ball club sponsored a delightful dance in the Hall and by mdnight the hall was crowded with dancers. After supper Ted Rowland spoke for the baseball league and presented the Francois Lake ball club with the cup won in 1948. Claude Lord, who was manager of the team, accepted the cup on behalf of the team. Then Bud Lord was called to the platform and presented with a silver cup as he was voted the most popular player in the team last year. A trophy won by Ken Routley for the highest batting average was accepted by his brother Kip as Ken is now in Coquitlam. After the presentations dancing was resumed to the music of the Francois Lake Orchestra until the early hours of the morning.

CLOSE PLAY IN BILLIARDS

Three more matches in the "foursome" handicap English billiards tournament have been played at the Canadian Legion Hall between the "Old Vets" and the "New Vets" and each side has one more match to play before it is known who will take part in the semi-finals. All matches were very closely contested and in the two between the "Old Vets" it was anybody's game up to the last shot.

W. Strachan and Rod Smith (Wm. Barton substituting), playing scratch, defeated Neil Cameron (15 or no count) and J. A. Teng (plus 10) in an exciting finish by 150 to 147.

Wilfred Goddard and George Dawes, playing scratch, defeated W. Strachan and Rod Smith with a similar handicap by a score of 150 to 143 in a match in which both sides overtook one another several times during the encounter..

S. Roberts and A. Hollbrook, playing scratch, defeated F. Comadina and W. H. Fudger (plus 20) by 150 to 134. A break of 22 by Comadina was the best effort for the losers, while Roberts made two breaks of over 20 points.

FACE WATER SCARCITY

EAST LONDON, South Africa (CP)—This town with a water ration of four gallons per day per person, is preparing for a siege which may last for six months or more. If no rain falls this month the city can expect six more rainless months, before spring showers start.

EQUININE EVOLUTION
