German Parliament after a communist outburst broke up the session in the Parliament's lower house.
Fighting broke loose on the floor but no one was injured. All parties except the communists had joined in a declaration condemning the loss of East German territories to Poland.

Planning Girl Guide Camps

Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. S. Kergin, the Girl Guide Association held its final meeting for this season. There was a report on Saturday's tea which ended in a discussion on camp. Week-end camps, as well as the possible use of the Kinsmen' Camp at Lakelse were considered. Transportation is a problem when going to Lakelse as the train does not arrive in Terrace until after midnight then there is a twelve to fourteen mile car ride to the lake. It was decided to have a "Diminishing Tea" to raise funds for a permanent local camp site where in future years both Guides and Brownies could go and enjoy a summer outing. Mrs. Eyoifson will be the first hostess at the "Diminishing Tea." Her eight guests will in turn each be hostesse to another seven guests and so on until there is one hostess and one guest. It is hoped that no one when her turn comes will break the chain of teas as the local camp will mean a greater opportunity for the girls to enjoy camping out and to receive the training which Guide Camps have to offer to young girls.

beach in various ways. Some took advantage of the opportunity to swim in salt water. There was also some chorus singing.

Ice cream abounded as well as other picnic fare. Sandwiches were made by parents and pooled.

In charge were G.R.S. Blackaby, Sunday School superintendent, together with Pastor L. A. Thorpe. Assisting them were Mrs. Blackaby and Mesdames Phil, Maundrell, Williams, Clausen, Dvornick, G. Christisen, Huber, Lindseth, Roblin, Barr, Holkestad, Petersen and J. M. Morrison. Men helping were Messrs. Williams, R. Hill, Phelps Ewald and Dvornick.

Girl Guides Tea Success

Many friends visited the Conrad Street School Saturday afternoon to have tea or purchase homecooking, plants or candies at the Girl Guide Association's annual tea. The money raised at this tea will be used towards the Girl Guide summer camp. The hall was simply but tastefully decorated in the Guide and Brownie colors—blue, yellow and brown, with here and there a large Guide trefoil. The main tea table, with its lace cloth and centerpiece, a bowl of blue and yellow flowers flanked with candies and the smaller tea tables around with yellow and blue decorated flower vases all looked very attractive. The Guides and Brownies were there in full uniform which added to the general effect.

The Local Association looked after the kitchen while the Guides of the First Prince Rupert Company did the serving. The Second Prince Rupert Company managed the plant table, the Third Prince Rupert Company, the homecooking and the Brownies of the First Prince Rupert Pack sold candies.

Mrs. Basil S. Proctor, Mrs. Brett, Mrs. A. L. Holby and Mrs. J. B. Gibson presided at the urns.

Commissioner Honora L. Silversides and Mrs. B. Eyoifson received the guests.

It pays to advertise.

Regular Baptist Picnic Enjoyed

One hundred and forty-four happy youngsters and parents boarded Alf Ritchie's halibut boat, Finella, at the Digby ferry float to be taken to Digby Island for their annual picnic of Regular Baptist Church Sunday School.

After a pleasant sail across the harbor they went to the grounds of the former marine station at Digby Island. It was an ideal day for a picnic and the youngsters spent it on the
