HELEN KASPER IS SHOWER HONOREE

Mrs. John Thompson and her daughter, Miss Kay Thompson, were hostesses at a delightful shower in honor of Miss Helen Kasper whose marriage to Jack Furness will take place this Friday. The affair was held at the home of Mrs. Sam Haugan, Fifth Avenue East. Contests and music were enjoyed by friends of the bride-to-be who gathered for the pleasant occasion. The highlight of the proceedings, however, came during an interval when Miss Kasper was presented with a lovely decorated basket containing many beautiful gifts. Delicious refreshments were served with Mrs. R. Haugan, Mrs. J. Knowles, Miss B. Macaulay and Miss Pat Thompson acting as serviteurs. Those present included Mrs. F. W. Grimble, Mrs. Terry Grimble, Mrs. J. T. Kasper, Mrs. H. V. Tattersal, Mrs. P. Shannon, Mrs. V. Norberg, Mrs. B. J. Bacon, Mrs. C. McIntyre, Mrs. T. Thomas, Mrs. H. Stewart, Mrs. F. Gunn, Mrs. G. B. Casey, Mrs. W. V. Tattersal, Mrs. K. Nesbitt, Mrs. J. J. Little, Mrs. F. Reid and Mrs. B. J. Smithson.

LITTLE AND OH MY!—The younger set loves polka dots, too! This style adds a peekaboo touch with eyelet-embroidery insets in the bodice and the skirt. The style shown can be made from polka-dot-print cotton feed-bags. It buttons down to the waist and ties in a big bow at the back. The full puffed sleeves and shirred skirt make it a favorite of the very little "Miss" Mother can turn out a wardrobe of variety for the kindergarten group.

The contract having been let to Greer & Bridden, work is already under way in remodeling the building formerly used by naval officers during the war and now owned by the Canadian Legion.
