"One Man Army" Held
Savio Bridgehead

Nearly four years ago, on the night of October 21, 1944, Pte E. A. "Smoky" Smith of New Westminster, won the Victoria Cross for his part in an action while serving with the Seaforth Highlanders in Italy. He became the first Canadian soldier below the rank of commissioned officer to win the VC in World War II.

They didn't call Smith a "one man army" for nothing. That night, holding a small but vital bridgehead across the Savio River, he almost single-handedly drove off a German counter-attack by a troop of Mark V Panther tanks, supported by two full-tracked, self-propelled guns and about 30 German infantrymen.

At a range of 30 feet and exposing himself to the full view of the enemy, "Smoky" knocked out one enemy tank with a blast from his Platoon gun. "Ten German infantrymen jumped off the back of the tank and charged him with Schmeissers and grenades," the citation reads in part. "Without hesitation, Pte. Smith jumped out on the road and with tommy gun at point blank range killed four Germans and drove the remainder back."

Twice wounded before the brilliant action which won him the British Empire's highest award for gallantry, Smith had been in action with the Seaforth Highlanders throughout their long and tough campaign in Sicily and Italy, with the exception of two months spent in hospital in North Africa.

He received his V.C. shortly before Christmas from the hands of His Majesty the King at a private investiture at Buckingham Palace.

HOUSEHOLDER'S MISTAKE
LONDON, Ont. (P)—One resident here recently thought the hydro shortage had reached its peak and officials had pulled switches to ease the load. When lights went out in his home, he telephoned City Hall to inquire. They told him his fuses had blown out.

GYROS PLAN FALL EVENTS

Apple Day, Hallowe'en
Hoedown and Stag
Party Coming Up

Consideration of fall fund-raising efforts in support of the club's playground development projects, notably the new swimming pool in McClymont Park which is nearing completion, occupied the Prince Rupert Gyro Club at its regular monthly business luncheon yesterday.

In charge of this event is Grant Stewart with T. H. Wilford, W. J. Scott, Maurice Brydges, Frank Skinner and C. P. Balagno organizing the stands.

Close on the Apple Day will follow the ever-popular annual Hallowe'en Hoedown of which W. F. Stone is again chairman with sub-committees as follows: Tickets—Maurice Brydges, Grant Stewart, Martin Van Cooten and George Rorie.

Door—G. J. Dawes, C. G. Ham, C. P. Balagno and J. H. Bulger. Decorations—W. J. Scott, Rob-

PLANT 500 TREES ON
SCHOOL SCHEDULE—Tree planting is a game of these Aussie kids of West Ivanhoe, Australia. Five hundred children from Ivanhoe schools turned out in full to plant 500 pine trees in the Darebin creek valley, near West Ivanhoe, recently. The ceremony of the tree planting was part of a project in which the Heidelberg council proposed to plant trees for three miles along the valley.

TROUT LIKES BEEFSTEAK
TURNER VALLEY, Alta. (P)—A five-pound bull trout with expensive taste was bagged by 13-year-old Melvin Gullbransen in the Sheep River. Just like any other consumer, the trout snapped up a generous hunk of beefsteak with which the youngster had baited his hook.
