DEANE'S QUALITY CLEANERS

519 Sixth Avenue West

Monday, January 12

We Make Your Clothes Look Like New

PROMPT, COURTEOUS AND MODERN SERVICE

PICK-UP AND DELIVERY • PHONE 283 •

DRY CLEANING — LAUNDRY — DYEING

Management of Pat Deane, Graduate of National Institute of Cleaners and Dyers

The use of cork for life preservers was known to the ancient Romans. PLENTY OF COAL

OLD USE FOR CORK

China's coal reserves are esti-

Optometrist

MANSONS

Alaskan Not Very Happy in Hawaii

Bob Synder, who were transfer- long residence in Paris. With his is a literary hobo. He landed in red from here to Hawaii last young Polish wife and their the Saturday Review of Litera-October, are not finding life in baby girl he lives in a pink ture a while back where the the mid-Pacific precisely all they stucco bungalow, complete with critic said that Miller-let's see were looking for.

banks, Snyder mentions walls limited funds, trying to make a are about a foot thick. There are name for themselves as artists. One usually hears half a dozen Clothing is simple. The counfruits are cheap, more particu- publicity. larly pineapple.

LESS SUSCEPTIBLE appendicitis than are men. EVEN CRITICS Surrealist Author Henry Miller Confuses Readers,

BOOK PERPLEXES

Inspires Writing Cult

By ELMONT WAITE

named Henry Miller who defies little shop. classification. Hence he has The book does seem to offer been classified by Harpers Mag- some support to those who say azine as the leader of a new cult there is a central theory among of mysticism, sexualism, anarch- the Millerites—a theory that the ism and surrealism; by the San duty of an artist is not to bother Francisco Examiner as the with beauty, but to attempt leader of a "cult of hate," which critical self-analysis and record consists of "a group of fugitives the result. from the time clock and dish- Miller achieved some degree of pan"; and by the San Francisco fame by his writings during long Chronicle's art critic, Spencer years in Paris. His use of four-Barefoot, as a "gentle, charming letter words, however, forbade prose and wishes he could buy not become widely known to the FAIRBANKS - Mr. and Mrs. Big Sur country in 1943, after But don't get the idea Miller For example, there is no get- erson Creek. A little group of let's look again . . . Hmmm! Just because the weather moved into the same rugged but too! named Murray Von Graff, says Make Baby Bonnets In a letter to friends in Fair- they are just young people with Of Trouser Linings

These comprise the cult which K. Prentice sent out an Miller himself snorts gently at friends when she returned and few mind. Streets are all the talk of cults. Small, grey- Toronto after work with the In- (Le Canada) Lasalle said Gau- to neous plastic desire which the hazardous pull between the endurance. It thus acts as an ince screen process, his new art form heated wooden huts.

> 800 COPIES PRICED AT $100 EACH

is a combination of handwriting, in ink, with symbolic illustrations. Miller calls it "Into the Night Life,' to be read "like a psychoanalyst hearing the dreams of his patient.

A copy of the book was put on display at the San Francisco Museum of Art. Its handwritten lines ranged from small, for CARMEL, Calif. (AP) - A routine sentences, to B-I-G-for mountain in the wildly-wooded important phrases. Sometimes primitive Big Sur country 35 words were underscored for emmiles to the south is harboring phasis; and often he switched to a literary character who is stir- a different color ink. Palestinian ing up quite a few ripples, es- artist Bezalel Schatz provided pecially on the brows of critics. the illustrations for the book, He is an ex-Brooklyn gamin which was bound by hand in a fellow who writes beautiful reprints in America, and he has his baby daughetr a magic lan- American public. To print his new book, he sold several prized vines, atop a mountain at And- he said Miller was . . . Wait, ing away from the high cost of other artists and writers has The critic must be puzzled the Examiner's Clint Mosher request for clothing for chilth all buildings open there is reported—is convinced "modern dren in Austrian displaced perno lack of a variety of noises, civilization is on its death bed, sons camps, she found the only and the sooner the mortician is material was lining of men's radios blaring at the same time, called the better." Mosher term- trousers. But with a little ined them morbid and grim rather genuity, she transformed them than truly Bohemian, and found into baby bonnets and shirts.

poetical" painter. Gauvreau's art them not particularly concerned Miss Prentice brought back crowded and narrow. Fresh ing, and rather bald, he shuns ternational Refugee Organiza- vreau was "the most advanced" both imposes rigor, unity and tion as the chief welfare officer of the "automat" group and that feeling to the objects I paint.

of displaced persons camps in his first show "definitely proves the British zone of Austria. that his art is clearly personal "However, I do not paint relay the food first to the tug try delicious Ovaltine for In his latest book, limited to When she returns to Austria she and original while being well coldly; I paint under the influ- and then to the distressed vessel. growth and better appetite. 800 copies at $100 each and will be in charge of 1,000 tuber- ahead."

plane crash which also took the life of opera singer Grace Moore. vreau, a young Montreal expon- for all that adding:

at Stockholm after attending ceremonies marking the 40th year of his reign. The youngster's mother, Princess Sibylla, is at right. The boy's father, Prince Gustav, died last January in a

'AUTOMISM"

ent of the much-depated but Described as a "decorative and exhibit in Montreal recently.

modern painting held his first - ence of an internal feeling while. For nearly five hours the opera-Women are less susceptible to printed by hand with the silk- cular patients housed in un- Gauvreau himself does not crigin I do not know and which tion continued with the tiny mind the automat influence. He changes for each work."

DORY HELPED GREEK VESSEL

By A. HARRY ROSE

Canadian Press Correspondent Josephine, a powerful Canadian dead dog with a dead of tug which left Halifax late in the child will have some November to answer a call for guide him in the next help from the Greek freighter Vernicos Nicholas, have added a new chapter to the volume of

The two men-Chief Officer her engines stopped three weeks previously. The ship had been hove to waiting for aid in foul

Capt. John Cowley, youthful

Josephine found the American she had tried to take in tow and KING GUSTAV MARKS 40-YEAR REIGN-Holding the hand of had only abandoned the athis great grandson, Prince Carl Gustav, 89-year-old King Gus- tempt when two lines parted.

SHIP WAS WITHOUT FOOD

inos, wife of the chief engineer. | CCIENCE has proved the the job in a dory although Capt. Cowley said he would not orde an intuitive, emviric and spon- wart Newfoundlanders bega craft in constant peril. When the food was finally haply the Nicholas' side and the foundlanders fought their back to the tug they were aboard in an exhausted

> ETERNAL FRIEND Eskimos are said to b

WRITER'S BACKGROUP Somerset Maugham novelist, became a physical soft bones, poor teeth, faulty a of a child's daily Phosphorus and Iron.

against food deficiencies that normal growth.

So if your child eats poorly.

OVALTIN

• Prince Rupert Sweet Sixteen regular prices are always the same as in Vancouver. Sale prices here and in Vancouver are identical.

COATS...

FUR FUR - TRIMMED UNTRIMMED

COATS

Priced to clear, these smart, quality coats are exceptional buys. See them on display at Sweet Sixteen's tomorrow.

9 Sweet Sixteen's Semi-annual Clearance Sale puts the spotlight on merchandise with the 'New Look' selling at prices that are truly marvellous.

DRESSES...

FOR CAREER GIRL AND MATRON

DRESSES

You will get plenty of looks in one of these lovely creations and sale prices are surprisingly low.

HATS Head adornment to add to that "New Look" you are acquiring. Selling now at greatly reduced prices. BLOUSES

The long skirt is here to stay and the blouse is becoming more popular every day. See our assortment now on sale at unusually low prices.

All these values can be purchased on SWEET SIX-TEEN'S personalized BUDGET PLAN, There is No Interest and No Carrying Charges.

This sale of 'New Look' merchandise will last for a limited time only. Visit Sweet Sixteen Now.

