SENATOR WEDS SECRETARY—Senator W. Rupert Davies, 71, publisher of the Kingston (Ont.) Whig-Standard, married his private secretary, the former Margaret McAdoo, in Toronto Thursday. Here Mrs. Davies signs the register of St. Paul's Anglican Church as her bridegroom looks on. It is the second marriage for Senator Davies, former president of the Canadian Press and the Canadian Daily Newspapers Association. His first wife, the former Florence McKay, died in 1948, after they had been married 47 years. (CP PHOTO)

"Flame and Arrow" Here

An epic spectacle of romance "The Flame and the Arrow," comes to the Capitol Theatre for a week-end engagement. Starring Burt Lancaster and Virginia Mayo it is filmed in Technicolor.

The story is of medieval Italy revolving around the historical episode when the mountain men of Lombardy rose up under the daring leadership of Dardo and fought the Hessians who were seeking to run their country. Against such a background, the story projects the romance which takes place between the leader of the rugged Lombardians and the royal Anne of Hesse.

The film has been one of the most talked-about in Hollywood. Action marks "The Flame and the Arrow" with Burt Lancaster doing all his own climbing, fencing and archery. The story also calls for a group of lumberjacks to invade the royal castle as a ruse with stunts high in the rafters of its great hall.

Robert Douglas plays Alessandro, a traitorous landowner, Hesse, and Lynne Baggett as a princess consort.

Neighbors Help Big House Move

RICHLEA, Sask. — Robert Whillians, a veteran of the South African and First World Wars, lost a leg a year ago. Now he knows that the friendly pioneer spirit still lives in this community 80 miles southwest of Saskatoon. Neighbors worked three days moving his house to a new location, insulating it, lining it with beaver board, laying new linoleum and installing electric lights. Eston branch of the Canadian Legion paid all costs and legion members donated their time.

CHANGED HABITS

Greenland was a seal-hunting community for centuries before large shoals of cod appeared in the 1920s.

Nick Ciavat, who plays Piccolo, a hardy mountain member of Dardo's band, is a lifelong friend and circus buddy of Burt Lancaster, and the two repeat their nimble artistry of the big top in the film.

Seven-year-old Gordon Gebert, around whom much of the action takes place, is the son of non-theatrical parents who moved to California prior to the filming of "The Flame and the Arrow."

SHIPS and WATERFRONT

Christmas cheer, or as the ships purser quipped, "a cargo of headaches," amounting to 1,500 cases of liquor, arrived in port aboard the Prince George from Vancouver yesterday. The Prince George Capt. E. B. Caldwell, on her weekly voyage, arrived at 10:00 a.m. from Vancouver, Westview and Ocean Falls and sailed at midnight for Ketchikan whence she will return here tonight south-bound.

Passengers arriving here on the Prince George were: H. Everett, J. H. Weeden, R. K. Jordan, G. Speers, M. Robertson, W. C. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. J. Sedgewick, H. Revwick, R. M. Gillispie, L. M. Reid, P. G. McConnell, Mrs. S. Amann, A. Bell, E. Wampler, W. G. Mackenzie, Mrs. F. Rainford, Mrs. E. Wallace and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hughes, Mrs. Williams, G. Halcron, B. Mills, A. Jones, W. G. Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. T. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Ruark, Mrs. A. Drummond, Gordon Acton, J. V. Boys, W. Davies, W. Good, H. R. Thomson, Miss M. Powell, Mah Sing, Mrs. H. Johanson, Mrs. D. Collison, W. Fournes, L. Knood, B. Johnstone, H. M. Shaw, G. Smith, J. Peterson, A. Dean, F. Tait.

Alaskan coastal vessel Sidney, Capt. C. Hendrickson, arrived in port last night from Juneau with three carloads of frozen fish for transshipment over Canadian National lines to eastern United States markets.

Local Banker Is Transferred

Accountant of the local branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce for the past three years, Richard A. Morley has been transferred to Westview, near Powell River, as manager, according to announcement made today. He leaves with wife and family for his new appointment down the coast before the end of the month.

Successor here to Mr. Morley is to be E. A. More from the Dunbar Street branch in Vancouver who, with wife and family, will arrive within two or three weeks.

Mr. Morley has been active in community affairs during his residence here and is currently president of the local branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society as well as a director of the Prince Rupert Museum and the United Church Men's Club.

I.O.D.E. Bazaar Was Success

Final report of the I.O.D.E. fall bazaar, presented Monday at the meeting of the Municipal Chapter, showed it was a success both socially and financially. Regent Mrs. G. R. S. Blackaby was in the chair. The door prize had been claimed by Miss Delphine Balagno, holder of ticket number 42, the report said.

Native Art Of Indians

Archaeological Hobbyist Says It Should Not Have Been Ignored

Cause of at least some of the difficulties that have been encountered in handling the Indians of this country has been the failure to admit that these people had an aboriginal culture of their own worthy of acceptance said Frank Smith, contractor's accountant and hobbyist in archaeology, who was the speaker at the regular weekly luncheon of the Prince Rupert Gyro Club yesterday. Mr. Smith proposed that the natives be given a full chance to develop those talents as a means of assisting them in becoming useful and accepted citizens—Canadians all.

Delving deep into historical research concerning the Indians, Mr. Smith said it was conceded that these peoples had not evolved on this continent but had come from outside. Their physical characteristics indicated that they had come in successive waves. The Indians of this coast were of a late type and probably of Mongolian ancestry.

Mr. Smith then proceeded to classify the native tribes of British Columbia including the Haida, the fighting "Vikings of the North," and the Tsimshians, the traders, all with their aboriginal cultures which, unfortunately, had not been perpetuated following the coming of the white man.

The speaker's discourse was followed up with a showing of an extremely interesting series of slides depicting native arts and relics, many from Mr. Smith's own valuable collection. These included totem poles of which the Haida and the Tsimshians had been the greatest carvers, their art reaching its peak after the introduction of metal tools but which, unfortunately, had all but died out.

Presiding over yesterday's Gyro luncheon was Past President Maurice Brudges in the absence of President A. J. Dominato. In addition to the speaker of the day, Rev. T. G. Sieber of First United Church was a guest.

WHERE 10 DIED—A toyland fire in Kay's department store in downtown Halifax, which broke out shortly before closing time, claimed the lives of 10 shoppers and clerks late Thursday afternoon. Fire spreading from a display window cut off the main entrance above which firemen are seen battling the flames. It took six hours to bring the blaze under control. (CP PHOTO)
