AMENDMENT TO ARTICLE 9
Tariff Stating Rates and Rules for Electric Service at Prince Rupert, B.C. Curtailment of Service

At any time in the event of a shortage of water supply, whether actual or apprehended by officials of the Company, or in the event of a breakdown or failure of generating, transmitting or distributing plant, lines or equipment, the Company, after receiving either verbally or in writing, the consent of the Public Utilities Commission, shall have the right to require any customer or classes of customers or all its customers, until notice of termination of the requirement is given or between specified hours to discontinue the use of energy for any purpose or purposes or for all purposes or to reduce in any specified degree or to any specified degree or quantity his or their consumption of energy for any purpose or purposes or for all purposes.

Any such requirement may be communicated to any customer or customers or to all customers by either or both of the following means, that is to say, by public notices in the press and by causing announcements to be made over the radio, and may be communicated to any individual customer by either or both of the following means, that is to say, by notice in writing (either sent through the mail or left at the premises where electric service is received, or served personally) and by oral communication. Any notice of the termination of any requirement may be communicated similarly.

If in the opinion of any official of the Company any customer of the Company has failed to comply with any requirement of the Company communicated as aforesaid, the Company shall be at liberty, after notice to the customer communicated as aforesaid, to discontinue electric service to such customer.

The company shall not be liable for any loss, damage or expense occasioned to or suffered by any customer for or by reason of the making of any such requirement or the discontinuance of electric service to him as aforesaid.

The consent of the Public Utilities Commission has been received as at January 19th, 1950. (11)
