BERTHS IN PLAY-OFFS

Montreal vs. Detroit and Toronto vs. Boston

TORONTO (CP) — The Stanley Cup play-off picture was settled at the last minute in the final scheduled games of the National Hockey League Sunday night.

Boston edged out Montreal for second place.

Montreal will meet Detroit and Boston, Toronto in the semi-finals starting tonight.

The final point standings Detroit, 75; Boston, 66; Montreal, 65; Toronto, 57; Chicago, 50; New York, 47.

WALKING SPEED

STOCKHOLM (CP)—A giant transformer, weighing 277 tons and fully assembled, was recently moved by rail from Ludvika electric works 150 miles to Stockholm. Carried on a specially-constructed car, it travelled at the rate of 3½ miles an hour.

TRAMS FOR HOMES

DURBAN, South Africa (CP)—The Durban Corporation recently auctioned off 12 double-decker trams. Two trams will be used for homes, three more for hotel cafeterias and a store-room and another will be remodelled into a greenhouse.

B. SIMUNDSON GOES TO FINALS

Further play in the fourth handicap English billiards tournament at the Canadian Legion Hall has reduced the contestants for this event to three and only one more game has to be played to decide the players who will engage in the final match the middle of this week.

Bruce Simundson (plus 35) scored an unexpected win over C. L. Youngman, winner of the last tournament, who was playing scratch, when he finished with a score eight points in excess of his handicap, 150 to 107.

Last night Simundson again finished his match undefeated, winning from A. L. Holtby, to whom he conceded five points, by the substantial margin of 150 to 93. During this match Simundson scored a 33 break while Holtby had one for 23 points to his credit.

This afternoon Alex Harvey (minus 20) plays J. Campbell (minus 30) in the semi-final and the winner will meet Bruce Simundson in the final match before Friday.

Mrs. Bruce Rogers, who has been paying a visit here as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Stone, is sailing this afternoon by the Catala on her return to Vancouver.

The Saturday night basketball games at the Civic Centre gave three teams a spot in the finals and sent three more teams into retirement until next season. Bo-Me-Hi just barely eked out a win over the fast-stepping Brownwoods and were fortunate to carry an 18-point lead into their second game as Brownwoods forced the pace all night to cut the lead to three points. Bo-Me-Hi will meet Co-op in the finals when they return from the High School Invitation Tournament in the south.

Merchants were never in much danger of losing their play-off spot and Saturday night's win brought them into the finals of a best of three series with top-place Fashion. This series will get underway tonight with a second game on Thursday. Kinsmen maintained their lead over Rupert Hotel to win the Junior semi-finals and will meet North Star in the finals starting next week.

The girls' series proved to be the endurance contest of the evening and People's overcame High School's eight point first game lead to tie up the score 23 all at full time in the second game. Two overtime periods were played and a third started but the girls gave up in sheer exhaustion, so tonight will see a sudden death game to find a winner to play Dom's in the first game of the finals on Thursday night.

The Hoop Shoot is also narrowing down to play-off rounds. Tonight will see a champion declared in the Junior division with Derek Letourneau assured of a semi-play-off berth against the winner of Bill Morrison vs. Jordan Smith vs. Roy Webber. Bill Toderas will play the winner of the above group for the Hoop Shoot prize. The open division is slowed down because of the fact that three Bo-Me-Hi players are strong contenders and the shoot must wait their return. Tonight will see several eliminated when Jack MacLeod meets Johnny Comadina, W. Davidson vs. J. L. Blain, Grant Stewart vs. Joe McKay, Bill Long vs. Don Stewart, Bob Vuckovich vs. Sonny Beynon, J. Intermela vs. John Ketcheson, Bob Scharff vs. R. Holkestad, and Allan Hartwig vs. Harold Marshall. Rupert Holkestad is a strong contender for the championship and Satuhday night shot the best score to date with a near-perfect 14 of 15 shots.
