Peavine Harvey's Old Home Burns

The old home of the late "Peavine" Harvey at Driftwood in the Bulkley Valley country is reported to have been destroyed by fire, according to the Omineca Herald. Nothing, it is understood, was saved. It was occupied by Mrs. Harvey and her son. The late Mr. Harvey was one of the old timers of the Bulkley region, being most active and well known particularly during railway building days, and after.

FIRST MEMBERS ARE LAUDED BY LEGION LADIES

Six charter members of the Canadian Legion Women's Auxiliary were singled out for tribute last night at the organization's fifteenth anniversary banquet in the Legion Hall.

Special mention of their diligence and faithfulness was made by Mrs. J. S. Black, W. A. President in a speech before the 110 members following the dinner. Honored for their work since the founding of the auxiliary in 1933 were Mrs. H. B. Eastman, Mrs. J. Connery, Mrs. E. Goodsell, Mrs. Henry Smith, Mrs. T. Boulter, sr. and Mrs. Hugh Killin.

The banquet opened with the flag presentation ceremony, in which the Union Jack and the Legion banner were brought in by standard bearers Mrs. William Rothwell and Mrs. G. V. Hanley. The Grace was said by Sergeant-at-Arms Mrs. J. Gilchrist.

An outline of the year's accomplishments was given by Mrs. J. S. Black in her presidential report. She revealed that 51 new members had been initiated into the auxiliary during the last year, and summarized the manner in which funds were used.

This consisted almost wholly of donations to various causes—the Cancer Fund, Red Cross, Shaughnessy and Tranquille hospitals, welfare work, and substantial amounts to the men's section of the Canadian Legion.

Money was raised by putting on teas and sales, she said. Committees made regular visits to the Pioneer Home and to the Miller Bay hospital, where gifts of clothing and comforts were made.

Mrs. Black was recipient of a morocco leather brief case and a bouquet of flowers on behalf of the Auxiliary. The presentation was made by Mrs. Dan Parent, vice president. A toast to the president was proposed by Mrs. Rothwell.

Mrs. Black then presented Miss Edith Gandy with a pair of gold earrings in appreciation of her work at Auxiliary bazaars at which she has annually donated a quantity of needlecraft work. To Mrs. W. Murdoch, who served as secretary for the last two years, Mrs. Black presented a cigarette lighter.

The gathering enjoyed community singing with Mrs. J. R. Elfert as piano accompanist, and afterward played bridge, whist and bingo.

The committee in charge consisted of Mrs. W. Rothwell, convener; Mrs. G. V. Hanley, Mrs. W. Morrow, Mrs. W. J. Lineham, Mrs. J. Gillis and Mrs. A. J. Croxford.

Britain Building No New Warships

LONDON—No new ships will be laid down for the Royal Navy during the year beginning April 1. The estimated cost to complete vessels already under construction is £34,738,247. These are one fleet carrier, two light fleet carriers, eight destroyers, three cruisers and several smaller craft.

To keep table cloths from wrinkling in storage, fold them once and wind them on a large roll of newspaper.

FORTY AMERICAN CADETS COMING

Juneau, Wrangell, and Prince Rupert residents will soon be seeing military uniforms with a shoulder patch which they may not recognize at once. It is that of the ROTC cadets of the University of Washington, 40 of whom will leave Seattle next Friday aboard the Army freight and supply ship FS-210 for a 10 day training cruise to Alaska. In addition to their training aboard ship, they will be granted shore leave in three ports of call to give them an opportunity to familiarize themselves with the military importance of Alaska, and to learn a little of the country. These students are all volunteers who have chosen to make the trip during their spring vacation.

TEA 'EATERS'

Original uncertainties about how tea should be consumed lead early New Englanders to eat the leaves with butter and throw the brew away.

INJURED SEAMAN FLIES TO BRITAIN

VICTORIA—Paralyzed from the hips down, British seaman John Stones of Middlesborough, Yorkshire, leaves here this afternoon (Tuesday) on the first leg of a Trans Canada Airlines journey to London, England where he is due early Thursday afternoon. He arrives in Montreal Wednesday morning to connect with a TCA transatlantic airliner enroute to his destination.

A male nurse R. E. Scotty of Victoria will accompany him throughout.

During his lengthy air trip, Mr. Stone will recline on a stretcher and personally take up space normally used to seat two persons. Last November he had the misfortune to break his back in a fall from the gang-plank of his ship the British freighter Sampep which two months before had run into bad luck when she was damaged by fire at Port Alberni, Vancouver Island.

THIRD PAPER IN WINNIPEG

Former Local Woman, Dorothy Garbutt, is Columnist

Winnipeg's third daily newspaper has commenced publication. It is called The Citizen and comes out in the morning. The paper is owned and controlled by its readers.

The other two papers are the Free Press and the Tribune.

The publisher and general manager of the Citizen is J. F. Sweeney, formerly of the Regina Leader-Post. W. H. Metcalf is managing editor and G. E. Leighton and Paul Molloy associates. There are twenty pages. The first edition was sold out soon after the newsboys were on the streets.

One of the columnists for the Winnipeg Tribune is Mrs. Dorothy Garbutt who started her journalistic career in Prince Rupert during the war when, while acting as Young Women's Christian Association War Services hostess here, she wrote a daily column for the Daily News. Her column is named the "Care-free Corner."

MINE TANGANYIKA COAL
DAR ES SALAAM, Tanganika—Investigations to ascertain the potentialities of two new coal fields are being made here. The coal-fields were discovered by a geological survey in the southern province of Tanganyika last year.

Q. What is considered the best decoration for any room of the house?

A. Freshly-cut flowers, attractively arranged, will out-rank any other decoration you can think of.

Q. Is it correct for a married woman to send a wedding gift in her name only?

A. No; she should always include her husband's name when sending gifts.

NAAS OOLICHAN RUN BEGUN

The Naas River is the focal point for hundreds of natives this week with the commencement of the annual oolichan run. Boats from the lower coast and Alaska have joined vessels from the Naas, Skeena and Queen Charlottes for the yearly catch of the small fish.

The oolichan, which contains a high grease content, is prized by the native population as a delicacy and a source of food.

Quantities of the oolichans have reached Prince Rupert and are being served in some restaurants.

White light consists of seven colored lights: violet, indigo, blue, green, yellow, orange and red.

For Alaska—
