Biggest One May Be Still In Sea, Joe Scott Notwithstanding

Joe Scott, super-enthusiast of local devotees of the piscatorial sport, is home after an extended jaunt down the coast in search of spring salmon records. He is not complaining but one sensed that Joe is not altogether satisfied.

He had resolved that this time he would get a 100-pounder or might close to it but had to satisfy himself with a 50-pounder and the consolation that they may not come as big as his dreams after all.

Joe returned home Wednesday night aboard the Galt Brothers commercial boat Cariboo which he met at Hardy Bay ten days ago. They got fishing in at Rivers Inlet, Ellersley Lake, Ingram River, Koye River, Fishtrap Bay, Bishop Bay, Danube Bay, Indian River and Salmon River.

It was at Blind Channel in the Douglas Channel area where Joe got his big one with 20-pound test nylon line. It took a good hour to land. It was also there that another member of the party, Bob McLuckie, brought in a 43-pounder.

A dozen other fish which were on display this morning ranged downward in weight.

Plenty of trout also fell to the wily lures of the crafty angling of Scott, McLuckie, Bob Douglas and, of course, Captain Art Baker.

The Cariboo, after a few days here, proceeds to the Queen Charlotte Islands.

GENERAL MOTORS LINE-UP

General Motors line-up for tonight's senior football game in the Dominion Day Cup competition will be selected from the following: Boulter, Robinson, Wellens, Hornell, Olsen, John Wilson, Letourneau, P. Wilson, Price, Ford, Owens, White, Large, Magee, Lien and Adams.

The monthly meeting of the Public Relations Council last night was called off because no quorum was present.

Hawks, Scouts Win Softball

The first Junior softball game between the Hawks and the Seal Cove Sluggers last night was a hotly contested game, ending with the score of 11 to 8 in favor of the Hawks. Chief Umpire Tommy Sedgwick and Base Umpire Ronnie Ciccone turned in some excellent decisions.

In the second game between

Scouts and Baptists there were errors a-plenty on both sides with the Scouts coming out well on top with a score of 11 to 4 in their favor.

In tonight's games Annunciation School plays Seal Cove Sluggers. Baptists have already defaulted their game to the Hawks.

Final games in the second round are:

June 27—Scouts vs. Sluggers, and Hawks vs. Annunciation.
June 29—Baptists vs. Sluggers.
