During the war Chavchavadze played benefits for the Red Cross in England, going from city to city in the blackout areas during the blitz. In the United States he gave a series of concerts for the U.S.O. playing at military camps, and in Canada he made a tour for the benefit of the Queen's National Fund. He has made several cross country tours of America, has played in Mexico and Canada.

PIANO MASTER COMING—George Chavchavadze to be heard in recital here March 22.

England, France, Italy, Holland and Belgium.

He is one of the few remaining virtuosos who is known and hailed by musical audiences on both sides of the Atlantic. His international reputation is doubly impressive when one considers that the artist is only 43.

A child prodigy at five, Chavchavadze gave his first public performance at the age of ten with an appearance at court for the benefit of the Russian War Charities. When he was fifteen his mother fled from the revolutionists and had the child sent to England where he could continue to develop his prodigious musical talents.

He made his professional debut at Wigmore Hall in London in June of 1927. Received with great enthusiasm by the critics, he was immediately booked for tours of Europe and England. After nine years of concertizing, the young artist took a break from his tours and devoted 1936 to concentrated study with the famous pianist Egon Petri.

When he resumed the concert stage he was greeted as a mature artist, and as one of the leading musical talents of the day. He has played with the leading orchestras of England, Europe and America and has been described as "one of the

"DICK" PARKIN LAID AT REST

Many Attend Final Rites at Cathedral for Esteemed Pioneer Citizen

Many old friends gathered at St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral this afternoon to pay their final tributes of respect and esteem to the memory of the late Arnold Thomas Parkin, another of Prince Rupert's prominent pioneer citizens, who passed away late last week.

Rt. Rev. James B. Gibson D.D., Bishop of Caledonia, officiated, assisted by the rector, Rev. Basil S. Prockter. The Bishop paid fitting tribute to the deceased as churchman, citizen and family man. His sermon was touching and appropriate.

With Peter Lien presiding at the organ, hymns were "Unto the Hills" and "Abide With Me." Following the church service, interment was made in the Masonic section of Fairview Cemetery.

Pallbearers, all old friends and associates, were J. D. Allen, C. C. Mills, Thomas McMeekin, S. C. Thomson, W. H. Wilson-Murray and J. G. Garrett.

CO-ORDINATING COUNCIL ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

Annual meeting of the Women's Co-ordinating Council elected Mrs. A. L. Haines president, replacing Mrs. G. W. Rudderham, who served last year. The meeting, held at the Civic Centre, heard reports of the year's work, and laid plans for its 1948 projects.

New officers are: President, Mrs. A. L. Haines. Vice President, Mrs. T. Boulter. Secretary, Mrs. J. P. Miller. Treasurer, Mrs. G. W. Rudderham.

Executive, Mrs. J. Armstrong. Mrs. T. Sollien Mrs. J. S. Black, Mrs. M. Waksdale.

A visiting committee, which will visit elderly people in the area and assist with their needs, where required, was set up. This committee consists of Mrs. L. Doiron, Mrs. W. J. Lineham, Mrs. Earl Jarrett and Miss. Ellen Kinnaid.

Financial statement for 1947 showed a small surplus which will be used in this year's work. Initial plans were laid by the 15 members present for the 1948 "over 70" banquet just prior to Christmas.
