Stirring Address at Banff Convention by United States Justice

BANFF (P) The Nuernberg trial "has forever laid to rest in the minds of statesmen the vicious assumptions that all war must be regarded as legal and just," said Robert H. Jackson, Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court here yes-

A 90-minute address to the Canadian Bar Association reviewing the history and ramifications of the war crimes trials won for Jackson a standing ovation from 1000 Canadian Bar Association members.

Prime Minister L. S. St. Laurent arrived at Banff Springs Hotel, scene of the convention, late Thursday night. He was accompanied by Minister of Justice Stuart Garson and Solicitor General Hugues Lapointe.

tuna fish off the British Columbia coast are on a biting strike but British Columba fishermen, ho have already reeled in over 1,250,000 pounds of the tasty albacore, hope that the dearth of bites will soon be over. They confidently hope, before the 1949 tuna season ends late this month, to exceed last years recd catch of 2,000,000 pounds.

Unusually large masses of the past week the fish have been ignoring the lures.
