FAST, ROOMY YACHT JOINS

A mythical Bella Coola Indian chief who had the reputed ability to change himself into a swan is commemorated in the name "Yaloa" which was given to Dr. R. G. Large's new 36-foot sedan cruiser when it formally joined the Prince Rupert Row-Yachting Club fleet hursday afternoon at a launching ceremony at McLean's Boat at McLean's boatyard at 3:45 after being christened by Miss Peggy Large, daughter of the owner, before a group of friends.

The Seattle-designed vessel, which will undoubtedly be the fastest boat in the local fleet, was subject of approving comment by experienced boatmen and tyros alike as she sat on the ways and after her launching. Her graceful lines are indicative of both high speed and comfort for those who will travel in her.

TWO C.N.R. FIRST AID SUPERVISORS HONORED—At an investiture held recently at Government House, Ottawa, His Excellency, the Governor General of Canada, bestowed honors on two regional first aid supervisors of the Can adian National Railways. They were among a group of thirty to receive recognition for their valuable services in teaching first aid. The photograph shows J. K. Tambling, of Montreal, (right) general supervisor of first aid in the C.N.R. medical service, congratulating Jack Cook, regional supervisor of first aid, Western Region, Vancouver, well known throughout British Columbia, who was promoted to Officer Brother in the Venerable Order of St. John of Jerusalem. R. D. Adams, (left) regional supervisor of first aid, Central Region, Belleville, Ontario, who was admitted to the Order as a Serving Brother, is looking on. Both honor recipie nts have been teaching first aid to Canadian National Railways employees and others for over 35 years.
