Island Team Now Certain

For the first time in many years, Prince Rupert baseball fans will this season be offered some outside competition in the local baseball setup. This was decided at an enthusiastic meeting held at Watson Island, where employees of the Columbia Cellulose met to organize a club to represent their camp.

The meeting was called for the purpose of organizing baseball only with a view to entering the league here, but, after some consideration, it was decided that an association governing all recreational and social activities at the camp be formed. This association, it is felt, will then be in position to solicit support from all employees who, in turn, will benefit in one way or another by its activities.

No less than forty baseball players turned out for the meeting and it was pointed out that this number only represented those in camp. Many others living in the city were unable to attend the meeting. With this number available, it appears that there is little doubt that the island crew will form a rather formidable outfit to oppose the two city teams already entered in the league.

Officers of the new association were elected as follows:
Honorary President—C. H. Klotz.
