Form Setting for Afternoon
Wedding in First United Church

Decorations of chrysanthemums and mixed fall flowers with dimmed lights made a soft and pretty setting for the marriage of Miss Sylvia McKay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua McKay of Inverness Cannery, and James Wesley Warburton of Prince Rupert which took place at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon in First United Church. Rev. Lawrence A. Sieber officiated. Bridal music was by Henry A. Pluym.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was becomingly gowned in white with lace train. She carried pink and white carnations.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Henry Helin who wore a blue suit and had a corsage of carnations. Five bridesmaids were the Misses Vera Beynon, Louise McKay, Doris Sankey, Pauline Dudo. (Continued Page 6)

Let's Talk
Things Over

When Bob died, the neighbours fell to wondering what would happen to the family. He'd been a real family man, a steady earner, but he wasn't very old when the unexpected overtook him. It looked like disaster for the family. You see he'd recently built himself the nicest of homes and, of course, had made only a few payments on the mortgage. His eldest girl was going to high school, and the boy was looking forward to entering next year. The sudden death of Bob surely would end everything.

But it didn't. Of course, there was great grief, but much to everyone's surprise, the widow kept the home, the kids went to school, and the upbringing which everyone expected didn't come off. You see Bob believed in life assurance. He knew how important it was to create an immediate estate out of his small savings. He knew too that only life assurance could do this. Now Bob's widow receives a constant income; her home is paid for; and all because Bob realized that it was part of his responsibility to look after his lovely wife and family in the best way he knew how.

Let's talk things over—today!

Your Child's Eyes

Children's eyes are not fully developed miniatures of adult eyes. They grow to maturity slowly as the child develops. During school years, eyes require special care.

Without care, your child can grow into a permanent visual problem due to the increasing demands of study and office work.

Without care, inefficient eyes can handicap learning ability, retard progress.

Professionally trained people dedicate themselves to the complex study of visual care in order to serve you and your children.
