NO JOINT PROBLEMS with RECESSED-EDGE STONEBORD

Where two lengths of Stonebord come together, there's a true uniform channel. With a broadknife apply the famous Stonebord joint filler, then a strip of re-enforcing tape as furnished, then smooth off with more filler. The result—a strong, re-enforced invisible joint.

Stonebord comes end-bundled — two sheets taped face-to-face to keep them clean and perfect. Stonebord is smooth, hard and durable, takes any decoration, is vermin proof and fireproof because its core is mineral gypsum.

Sport Shots

Ottawa Rough Riders, top football team in the East, captured half of the 12 berths on Eastern Canada's all-star squad, it was disclosed with announcement of the 1948 first and second all-Eastern line-ups. Football writters and coaches in eight Eastern cities, who selected the two mythical teams for the Canadian Press, made the first squad a virtual carbon copy of this season's Big Four all-stars. Their only change was to send the Ontario Union's Frankie Filchock in at quarterback for Bob Paffrath.

With the vote weighted to give equal voting strength to each city, the selectors gave first-team status to the other six Rough Riders, four Montreal Alouettes and one Toronto Argonaut previously chosen for the Big Four line-up. Paffrath took the only second-team berth for Rough Riders, however. Of the remaining 11 positions, seven were awarded to intercollegiate Union players, three to Ontario Union performers and one to the Big Four Argos. University of Western Ontario, beaten out for the Intercollegiate title for the first time since 1938, still placed five players on the second team. The champion University of Toronto Blues captured only two positions while Hamilton Tigers took two for the Ontario Union and Toronto Beaches Indians earned one.

First Team—Tony Golab, Riders; Virgil Wagner, Alouettes; Howie Turner, Riders; Joe Krol, Argos; Frank Filchock, Tigers; Don Loney, Riders; Eddie Michaels, Riders; Lloyd Reese, Alouettes; John Wagoner, Riders; Herb Toohey, Alouettes; Bert Haigh, Riders.

Second Team—Don McFarlane, Western; Jack Parry, Western; Jack Harper, Tigers; Bruce Cummings, Varsity; Bob Paffrath, Riders; Doug Turner, Argos; Don McKenzie, Beaches; Bill Jarvie, Western; Fraser Mustard, Varsity; Pat Santucci, Tigers; Fabe Currie, Western; Bill Wardle, Western.

Noble and Wick, Belmonts and Big Sisters each took three games from Busy Bees, Brownwoods and Toilers respectively.

Undisputed KING of his Manor

Relaxed, he is ready for an evening of slippered ease . . . content with his four complements to a perfectly restful evening: The big chair, his favorite paper, pipe and rye . . . Harwood's.
Ask him why he chooses Harwood's. His answer is a simple one, without superlatives . . . "I have tried many types of rye whiskies, Harwood's, to my mind, is as near perfection as a good rye can be. For my taste, it is truly, "Canada's Finest."
