GENERAL ELECTRIC LAMPS

Give best lighting value

Over 400 tests are carried out to ensure the uniformly high quality—and longer-lasting brightness—of every General Electric Lamp you buy. That's why it's important to insist on G-E Lamps—ask for them by name. Buy them from your G-E dealer—in the handy 4-lamp package.

E. John Kill of New Westminster has arrived to be the accountant for Harold Smith's transfer business. A recent newcomer from England Mr. Kill is at present residing at Mrs. Dover's home. His wife and daughters remain in the south until he can find accommodation for them here.

HOMeward BOUND—Mrs. John Irving of Hamilton will leave soon for her native England to await the death from cancer which surgeons say may come within six months. When the 34-year-old woman expressed a desire to see her mother, a public fund was started and an airline offered her free passage to England. With Mrs. Irving will go her three small children. Her husband, also shown here, is a disabled war veteran. He gave permission for the two boys and the girl to be taken to England to be cared for by Mrs. Irving's mother and sisters. (C.P. Photo)

Canvassers have been out collecting for the Hospital Fund but the collections are coming in rather slowly, up-to-date. The objective is $1,000. The opening subscription was $100 from the Kinsmen's Club.

The latest total for the collections of the recent British and Foreign Bible Society drive amounted to approximately $141 with one or two other collections to come in.

As the old executive is not able to carry on in office and no one is willing to replace them, the Women's Institute regretfully decided to close, at a meeting held at the home of Mrs. L. Johnstone recently. Only eight members attended the meeting.

Pretty Wedding At Cathedral

St Andrew's Cathedral was the setting for the wedding of Annie Elizabeth Charlotte (Betty) Wide, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Wide, and Arne Lien, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peder Lien, both well known and prominent families of this city.

Rev. Canon Basil S. Procter officiated.

The bride was charming in a floor length gown of white silk, covered with net skirt, lace bodice with sweetheart neckline. Her veil falling from a crown covered with silver sequins. She carried a shower bouquet of American beauty roses.

Miss Gerd Lien, sister of the bridegroom, was the maid of honor and Miss Margaret Wide, sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid. The former was dressed in pink taffeta and the latter in blue taffeta. Each wore shoulder length veils and carried colonial bouquets in pink and white carnations.

Harold Skamerud was groomsman.

The wedding march was played by the groom's father, Peder Lien, and also in attendance was the junior choir, singing "O Perfect Love." During the signing of the register.

Ushers were Lloyd Pedersen and James Oil Jr.

A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Zarelli, the bride's aunt and uncle, 412 Emmerson Place. The guests were received by the bride's mother, dressed in grey gabardine suit and pink accessories, and the groom's mother dressed in a pale blue gabardine suit and black accessories.

Both wore pink and white corsages.

The bride and groom, standing underneath an arch decorated with white and pink streamers and wedding bells, received the congratulations and best wishes of the guests. Toast to the bride was proposed by D. W. G. Stewart, the groom responding. Jack Wide proposed the toast to the bridesmaids and the groomsman responding.

Delicious refreshments were served and a beautiful decorated three tier wedding cake was duly cut by the bride and groom. In fitting words the bride thanked her uncle, Henry Smith, for the lovely cake.

During the evening Canon Procter proposed a toast to the bride's aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wide, it being the occasion of their tenth wedding anniversary.

Telegrams, expressing congratulation and best wishes for a happy future, were read by Rudolph Olsen. Of particular interest was one from the bride's grandparents in Wales.
