Grable, Dailey In Color Hit

Based on one of Broadway's most famous romances about the show business, "When My Baby Smiles at Me," starring Betty Grable and Dan Dailey, much-acclaimed musical hit in color, comes this Friday and Saturday to the Capitol Theatre here. It is a warm heart-tugging story of the flamboyant life and love of a stage couple when burlesque was at its height. It is also an excellent vehicle for the dancing talents of its stars.

Betty Grable is seen as a beautiful soubrette whose devotion to a loveable but undependable comic is the theme of the story. It is said to be a dramatic field day for both Miss Grable and Dailey.

The supporting cast includes Jack Oakie, a jaunty comedian; June Havoc, Betty's chorus friend, Richard Arlen, a wealthy rancher who comes to town; Jimmy Gleason, a sympathetic stage manager.

Ray Reflects and Reminisces

Prince Rupert used to find a few grains of comfort when, indignant at non-use of her elevator, we would be told that any wheat destined for the Orient would be shipped by way of this port. Wednesday it was learned a 600,000 bushel order for Japan will be handled through Vancouver.

Fear of the Germans is at the bottom of the Soviet Russia attitude, says Field Marshall Earl Wavell, visiting in Canada. He says the nature of the Germans, aggressors in two wars, has not changed. Russia has been invaded twice in a generation. The Soviet, he feels, cannot be charged with world domination ambitions. Russia today is looking for security and trying to build a defence against Germany.

The best evidence of more active times in Prince Rupert is seen in the sharp interest shown in municipal affairs now that the candidates are being groom-ed for next month's race. But public meetings, it can be safely expected will be neither as numerous and verbose as they were when the city was new and noisy.

The cost of keeping a family for a year is being recorded in Canada, and, to date, it would seem that a summing up of the annual outlay shows expenses exceeding income. The difference may never be more than a few hundred, if that much, yet it's always there—on the wrong side of the tracks so to speak.
There are prospects of some folks discovering what they can do without and still live. Presumably, they will call it the hard way.

assistant inspector, Mr. MacKenzie, are spending a few days in town on school duties.

C. L. M. Giggey drove to Prince Rupert on Wednesday to meet Mrs. Giggey and young son, Michael who has been having treatments on his hand in a hospital in Vancouver. They were accompanied to Terrace by Mrs. West who was returning from Vancouver having been called there through the death of her mother, Mrs. Griffiths.

Word has been received in Terrace of the death in Kamloops of Mrs. Hogan, the former Sylvia Taft.

Mrs. K. Wold and children returned last week from Vancouver where the three children were hospitalized for eye treatments.

Miss Yvonne Larsen, former primary school teacher here, paid a brief visit to Terrace last week. She is now teaching at the Borden Street School, Prince Rupert.
