ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY NEWS!

LEGION GAINS SIXTY MEMBERS

During the past year sixty new members were enrolled in Prince Rupert branch of the Canadian Legion and 33 members were transferred to the Prince Rupert branch from other branches. Nine members were transferred from Prince Rupert elsewhere. During the year, eight members died. The total membership is now 620.

President V. G. Houston, in a review of the year, has asked that the younger members maintain an active interest in the affairs of the Legion.

As for the new building, it was still somewhat early to say how soon construction will start although there is a possibility it will begin during the summer.

In the course of a general discussion relative to various matters of Legion interest at the general meeting Wednesday night, it was mentioned that, throughout the year, there had been 104 calls made at the hospital.

J. S. Wilson suggested that the Legion do its part in reviving interest in football and this matter will have attention.

Votes of thanks were passed the secretary-manager, P. M. Ray, the Legion staff, and all others who, in any way, had given of their time and effort.

Refreshments were served and the meeting adjourned around midnight.

FRANCOIS LAKE

Mrs. John Gilgan is teaching school again. She is at Bridge Lake, near 95 Mile House. There are nine pupils at the school. Her children are with her.

Dorothy and Elmer Mills and Colleen left on Tuesday morning by train for Chilliwack where they expect to stay until the end of the month. Captain Laing left on Thursday morning for Victoria to spend his holiday.

There are several areas on the lake where there is no ice and it will only take a good wind to clear the ice right out.

District Agriculturalist Johnson showed films at the hall here last Wednesday evening and there was a good attendance. Lunch was served by the members of the Women's Institute, followed by a dance until midnight. The orchestra donated its services and the dancers had a good time. A collection was taken which amounted to a little more than five dollars.

The Women's Institute monthly meeting was held at Mrs. Noble's home on Thursday afternoon. There was a small attendance as it is hard for the women to get to meetings these days.

Miss Preston, matron of the Burns Lake Hospital, spent the week-end at the Reg Partington home.

Pat Partington is helping in the hospital in Burns Lake. Janet Wade, who has just learned to ski, travelled on her skis from Pelletier's Store at Ootsa Lake to Grassy Plains on Saturday, a distance of nineteen miles. Janet has recently come out from London, England, and is nurses' aid in the hospital.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Les. Taft and Paul Piche of the Southbank Forestry Service and Janet Wade came around the lake via Nadina by road. The road is narrow but good for travelling.

Princess Norah had been thoroughly searched and there was not the slightest sign of him. So, having hunted through the ship, a posse went ashore to do some hunting there. Among the party were the Wrangell C.P.R. agent, Joyce Hay and a provincial police officer. It was a thorough search but the missing stranger was not there. He was not in a bar nor was he anywhere else within the town limits. And about that time, came a messenger from the steamship. He had been found snugly resting in the back seat of an automobile lashed on deck and all covered with tarpaulin. He was quite comfortable.

Union steamer Cardena, Capt. Ernest Sheppard, is due in port at 1:30 tomorrow from Vancouver and waypoints and will be sailing south thereafter on her return south.
