DELEGATE TO TRAVEL BODY

Prince Rupert will have its first representation on the B.C. Tourist Council this year since early in the war. The Council a government advisory body composed of regional appointees from throughout the province, will meet in the capital city to-

The Prince Rupert delegate will be E. T. Applewhaite, secretary of the local Chamber of Commerce, who flew south today to attend the conference. He expects to return Friday.

Under the sponsorship of the British Columbia Department of Trade and Industry, the Tourist Council holds periodic meetings with its regional members and receives suggestions from them which, in part, determine policy for publicizing British Columbia.

Before the war, Prince Rupert held a membership on the Council, but for several years was transferred to Prince of Commerce has been pressing to have membership restored and this year succeeded.

One of the difficulties encountered in making a place for Prince Rupert on the Council was the fact that the number of regional representatives is set by statute and a revision of
