One Goal Wins Game

Alyansh and Prince Ruper football teams met in weather before a fair attendance of spectators Saturday evening and Prince Rupert won with lone goal.

It was a good game to watch, particularly in the outfield. The defence had the measure of the forwards, there being four fine full backs on view. The forwards on both sides missed opportunities which should have been taken advantage of.

mez, Smith, Greer, Ford, Murray.

Aiyansh pressed on the opening of the game but Wellens o cleared. Smith forced a corner for Rupert and Murray placed nicely but the defence cleared. A foul against Elby looked dangerous but J. Adams headed o past. Aiyansh continued to press but a good opportunity was missed when P. Tait was caught in 1 an offside position. Play swung 1 to the other end for a brief spell Then a breakaway by Aiyansh resulted in R. Percival shooting o past Aiyansh forced a corner which was cleared by Eby. Murray took up the running and forced a corner but Pat Wilson shot past. Smith was nearly through but was penalized for dangerous play. Murray, who was well plied with the ball by Gree. Rev. A E.
