SHOO FLY! AND MONTREAL MEANS IT—Bonsecours market in downtown Montreal gets a good dousing with a 25 per cent DDT spray as the city winds up the first of a two-day experimental campaign to keep flies away from food markets and other breeding places. Periodical checks will be made during succeeding weeks by city sanitary inspectors to see how well the spray is doing its job. City health officials had full co-operation of the national war on pests campaign committee in carrying out their first offensive against flies with the famous war-time chemical. Jeep-borne equipment made it possible for more than three-quarters of a million square feet on markets and stockyards to be sprayed the first day.

Ocean Dock Elevator Used Again—Liners Making Farewell Calls

For the first time since the war, the Barlow elevator on the Ocean Dock here was used Sunday for the loading of automobiles when the steamer Princess Kathleen, southbound from Skagway to Vancouver, called there and took on two cars which had been driven into Prince Rupert over the highway. With the cars were their owners, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Stag and Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Stag, motor tourists from Oregon, who had driven here after fishing in the Cariboo and Prince George district. They had arrived on Saturday afternoon. The elevator on the Ocean Dock had been used quite regularly before the war by the old Princess Adelaide in the loading and unloading of cars and was similarly used during the war when the dock was taken over by the United States Army. After the war the motors were taken out but recently they were reinstalled. The Princess Kathleen called from 9 a.m. to noon Sunday on her final appearance here of the season after operating several tourist cruises to Alaska.

at Vancouver for the winter. During the past two-and-a-half months the Chilcotin had made about a dozen well-filled voyages carrying capacity loads of tourists on practically all.

Sunday saw the usual two Union Steamships coastal liners in port. The Coquitlam, Capt. William McCombe, arrived at 8 a.m. from Masset Inlet points and sailed at 10 p.m. for Vancouver. The steamer Camosun, Capt. John Boden, arrived at 6:45 Sunday night from the south and sailed at midnight for Alice Arm, Stewart and other northern points whence she returned here this morning to sail south at 1:30 p.m.

INDIA BIRTHDAY—With the flag of Free India waving overhead, Prime Minister Pandit Nehru of the Dominion of India is shown addressing the great throng that gathered to observe the second anniversary of her independence. The rally was held at famed Red Fort in New Delhi, from the ramparts of which Premier Nehru is speaking. Defence Minister Baldev Singh is in centre.

BING CROSBY MOVES AHEAD

Famous Crooner Keeps in Totem Play at Jasper Park

JASPER PARK LODGE—It was a day for favorites in the first round of the Totem Pole Golf tournament here yesterday and the games ran true to form. From a gallery point of view the interest was on "the Great Crooner" as the boys and girls were disappointed at his 82 score Monday which just squeezed him into the championship flight. Bing Crosby was back to form yesterday and eliminated Frank Dunn, Seattle 4-3. Bing made the turn in even par and was just two over. Then the match ended.

The full championship bracket ended up with George Coleman, Miami, Oklahoma, beating Pete Rule, Calgary 4-3. Charlie Read, Winnipeg, Canadian championship curler of the Watson rink beat Dick Schroeder, Astoria, Ore., 3-2. George Norgan, Vancouver, beat L. J. Wagner, Vancouver 2 up. W. J. Gilbert, Mount Vernon, Wash., beat D. Kinneer, Vancouver, 2-1. C. Perkins, Seattle, beat L. Campbell, Vancouver 3-2.

Syd Thompson, Vancouver, beat Percy Williams, Vancouver, and former Olympic sprint champion 1 up in a sizzling match in which both were only two over par.

Dr. J. D. Collins, Seattle, beat Frank Wolfe, Edmonton 4-3. E. E. Oana, Vancouver, beat D. F. Spear, Vancouver, 3-2.

In the lower half, Dr. Vernon Fowler, Astoria, Ore., beat D. Dubois, Seattle, 1 up. Harold Staff, Cincinnati, beat Fred Trigg, Winnipeg 3-2.

Bing Crosby, Hollywood, beat Frank Dunn, Seattle, 4-3. F. J. McFarland, Vancouver, beat Jimmy Storie, Vancouver 3-2. Carl Haymond, Los Angeles, 1946 Totem Pole champion, beat C. L. Johnson, La Jolla, Cal., 2-1. Gordon Verley, Victoria, runner-up last year and 1947 beat Jack Todd, Victoria, 2-1. J. Starkey, Edmonton, twice former champion, beat Dr. L. H. Webster, Vancouver 5-3. J. Edgar Green, Seattle, defending champion, defeated Leslie Bell, former Totem Pole champion, Victoria, 6-5.

LADIES PLAY
In the ladies' championship, one of the outstanding games was the fine form of Mrs. Frank Dunn, Seattle, who turned in par golf to defeat Mrs. J. G. Whitelaw, Montreal, 3-2. It was excellent golf with the easterner hanging on goggedly throughout.

The championship flight results were, Mrs. B. Cleat, Vancouver, beat Mrs. W. A. Sutton, Vancouver, 5-4; Miss Daintry Chisholm, Montreal beat Mrs. C. H. Shuttleworth, Guelph on the 18th green with a long putt; Miss Ann Sharpe, Welland, Ont., beat Mrs. J. C. Deitrich, Vancouver 3-2; Mrs. G. Pyke, Montreal, was red hot to beat Mrs. J. E. Beck, Seattle and former Washington State champion, 5-3; Mrs. H. W. Smith, Ottawa beat Mrs. S. Thompson, Vancouver, 5-4; Mrs. J. B. Seawright, Toronto, beat Mrs. H. R. Armstrong, Vancouver 5-4; Mrs. Dun, Seattle beat Mrs. Whitelaw, Montreal 3-2 and Mrs. Max Bell, Calgary, beat Mrs. T. P. Dunlop, Vancouver on the 20th hole.
