Sport Shots

President Frank Calder of the National Hockey League introduced the two-referee system, 26 years ago. Used for the balance of the 1923 season, the plan lasted until the end of the 1937-38 campaign when the system of one referee assisted by a linesman was inaugurated.

Boston Bruins' record N.H.L. unbeaten streak of 23 games was broken when New York Rangers gained a 2-0 shut out eight years ago. Although outplayed by a wide margin throughout, Rangers took advantage of a pair of third period penalties to Dit Clapper to chalk up both tails.

Globe Trotters Are In Hospital

Harlem Globe Trotters, who included Prince Rupert in a recent whirlwind tour of Alaska for basketball exhibitions at points as far north as Nome, are back home in Chicago. Don Forward, director of Prince Rupert's Civic Centre, has heard from the manager who says the colored boys played 15 games in four days. It was a hard pace and four of the players were put in hospital in Chicago.

SNOWSHOE FISHERMAN

Even some of the most ardent fishermen would pass up a fishing trip if they had to build a pair of snowshoes first, but not Jeff Lambly of Terrace. He figures that parts of the Copper River will soon be free of ice and that, if he can trek over the deep snows, he will have a lot of sport with the Dolly Vardens.

Jeff learned to fashion snowshoes after he was forced to improvise a pair when he became marooned in his trapper's cabin following an unusually heavy fall of snow some years ago. The "bearpaw" type he is making now because they are designed without wood crossbars but he thinks he will be able to web-foot it for the woods before long.

The snowshoe maker is creating considerable interest among some members of the Terrace Scout Troop. Already Jeff has supplied one of the boys with forms for shaping the frames and the rawhide for the web. But this isn't the first time Jeff has been of service to the youthful lovers of the outdoors. When they want help in constructing a fishing rod or trap, skin a mink or what have you, Jeff is usually the man they seek. And always Jeff lends a hand with a smile for anyone with a fondness for the outdoors, especially a boy, is kin to him.

LEGION BILLIARD TOURNEY STARTS

Two games in the first round of the fourth handicap English billiards tournament were played off last night at the Canadian Legion Hall. Charles Youngman, winner of the last tournament, playing scratch, made a good start by taking his first game in this tournament. It was an interesting match with George Abbott to whom he conceded 25 points, winning by 12 points with a score of 150 to 138. Neither player made any notable break but play on the part of both was consistently steady and the result was in doubt until a few minutes before the end.

In the second match R. E. Benson, with a handicap of 35 points, was matched against Don Nixon, a newcomer to Legion tournaments, who had a similar handicap. Benson, a veteran player in Legion tournaments, although not seen at his best, took an early lead in the game and finished off a winner with a score of 150 to 127.
