Victoria Man Searched Africa For Rare Plants

VICTORIA, B.C. (C)—Lionel Taylor, retired horticulturist, has returned from a 9,000-mile journey through South Africa in search of rare flowers and plants.

Accompanied by his wife and daughter, Mavis, the journey was made in a caravan, and they slept most of the time in the open.

"I collect plants only as a hobby," he said. "South Africa is a place for young men. Industry and agriculture is expanding rapidly throughout the Union."

Hundreds of English families who had immigrated from the United Kingdom were starting

Mrs. Albert Dalzell was cashier.

The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion by members of the Y.P.A. group.
