England's first Olympic hockey championship was assured 13 years ago when Canada edged out a 1-0 decision over the United States at Garmisch-Partenkirchen. The English team, strengthened by six Canadians, previously defeated Canada 1-0 and played a scoreless draw with the Americans. Canada placed second in the final standing with United States third.

The late John J. McGraw signed his first contract to manage New York Giants 46 years ago today. McGraw went on to pilot the National League club for 29 years, retiring in June, 1932. Under his management, Giants played in the World Series nine times, winning the title three times.

THUNDERBIRDS IN PUCK FINAL

VANCOUVER (CP)—University of British Columbia Thunderbirds lost to Vancouver Indians 5 to 4 in the second and final game of the Pacific Coast Senior "B" League semi-finals last night. Thunderbirds won the first game of the two-game total point series 5-3 Tuesday night so won by a total of 9 to 8 the right to meet Nanaimo Clippers in the final, beginning at Nanaimo tonight.

Choke Referee

HESPELER, Ont.— They take their hockey seriously here. In a game between Ayr Vics and the Breslau Cubs, several players choked Referee Eby of Preston, into unconsciousness. When he recovered he awarded the game to Ayr, 6-1.

MEY, Caithness, Scotland, (CP)—Lightning killed nine sheep here.
