1946 he was appointed to the Salvation Army Training College in Toronto, where he shared in the responsibility of training young men for Salvation Army service. In June he was transferred out to Vancouver, to take charge of North Vancouver Citadel.
Envoy and Mrs. J. Walker, missionary teachers of Canyon City will also be assisting in the services at the citadel this week-end.

Visitors in the city are Dr. and Mrs. R. V. Smalley of Willets, California, who arrived here Friday evening on the Catala to visit Mrs. Smalley's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Watts. They expect to be here for a few days, returning south by air. Mrs. Smalley was in the Philippines during the war and was a Japanese prisoner of war.

EXILES FROM RED HUNGARY ARRIVE IN U.S.—Among the arrivals on the S.S. Veendam was this group of Hungarian exiles, who, it was reported, might explore the possibilities of setting up a Hungarian government in the United States. Left to right are Dezso Sulyok, founder and chairman of the Hungarian Liberty party and a member of the Hungarian parliament until he was expelled by the Communists; Mrs. Sulyok and Bela Halter, secretary of the Liberty party. They were greeted by a delegation of prominent Hungarian exiles.

Carry Travellers Cheques and you can't lose...

It's the safe way to carry travel funds. Here's why ... Before your Travellers Cheques can be cashed, they must be signed twice by you: first, when you buy them and again when you cash them. So if lost, stolen or destroyed, and before you have added your second signature, they are worthless to anyone else ... and you get your money back. Keep your travel funds safe. Carry Travellers Cheques on all vacation or business trips. Cash them wherever you go, as you need the money. Sold at all branches.

MORNING RITES UNITE COUPLE

Miss Violet Cavenaille Becomes Bride of Reginald Statt

A wedding of wide city interest took place at the Church of the Annunciation Tuesday morning when Rev. J. A. Carroll joined Violet Julia Cavenaille, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Cavenaille, Seal Cove, in marriage to Reginald F. Statt, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Statt of Vancouver.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked beautiful in a French ankle-length gown of imported white taffeta moire with etched hemline over white satin and net, draped sleeves, sweetheart neckline and long white gloves. A small lattice cap of white taffeta with net veiling and white velvet violets and blossoms on ribbon streamers completed the ensemble. She carried a colonial bouquet of pale pink roses as she entered the church to the Wedding March played by Miss Frances Moore.

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Mrs. R. H. Hansen, gowned in an Adrian design of blue crepe with American Beauty crepe facing in the two-tiered skirt and cape sleeves. A tiny lattice cap with white flowers, blue ribbon bows and veiling and long white gloves completed the costume. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations and fern in colonial style.

Victor Cavenaille, brother of the bride, was groomsmen. During the service, Father Lantagne sang a beautiful rendition of the hymn "Panis Angelicus" accompanied by Miss Moore at the organ.

At an evening reception in Valhalla Hall the guests were received by the bride's mother, wearing a charming two-piece ensemble of beige and navy blue printed crepe. Her corsage was of white roses.

Under a bridal arch of pink and white streamers, the newly married couple received congratulations from their friends. Toast to the bride, proposed by Angus McDonald, was fittingly responded to by the bridegroom.

The couple are spending a few days in the city, after which they will leave to make their home at Vancouver.

FIREFIGHTING COSTS UP
VICTORIA, B.C., (C)—Cost of fighting forest fires has increased. At the beginning of July the cost of this season's firefighting was $21,324, $2,000 above the figure for the same period of 1947. Only 343 fires were reported to date, against last year's equivalent figure of 412.
