BASKETBALL—
Co-ops In Winning Form Again, Down High School

Co-Op poured in 69 points last night to take another Senior Basketball League victory over Bo-Me-Hi which also gave a good account of itself with 61. It wasn't a Co-op victory all the way as the two teams fought on even terms until the end of the third period with the lead see-sawing back and forth frequently. It was in the fourth that the inexperienced team began to crack and at one time Co-op held a fifteen point lead which High School managed to whittle down to eight points before the final whistle.

It was a free-scoring game and at one time in the third period baskets were raining in at the rate of four per minute. Don Scherk had his shooting eye for the first time since his sensational shooting of last year and he scored 21 points. Ted Arney and Ray Spring were both swishing the hoop from almost impossible angles, Ted making 17 and Ray topping him with 19. Joe Davis was also hitting the hoop regularly, garnering 16, and Sid Scherk for High School scored 13. It was a good game from the spectators' point of view although the majority of them were Bo-Me-Hi rooters and they went home disappointed. It was a case of age and experience winning over youth and inexperience. The best team won but High School gave the fans full value.

Bo-Me-Hi—Spring, 19, Carlson 9, Scherk 13, Webster 2, Moore 2, Bill 5, Ratchford 2, Kristmanson, Sharpe 2. Total 61.

Co-op.—Arney 17, Davis 16, Holkestad 4, Scherk 21, Macphree 6, Morgan 5, Marshall, Haugan. Total 69.

Intermediate

Merchants won a clear-cut victory over the first place Fashion team by a 31 to 20 score. They trailed Fashion until the second half of the game, half-time score being—Fashion 14, Merchants 10. But from there in it was Merchants ball game—and their victory was well-earned. The scoring was poor with very sloppy shooting on foul tries, Fashion making 1 of 10 and Merchants 7 of 19. The play was rugged with some very heavy body checks and there are some badly bruised ball-players walking around town today. It was not a good game for this division the spectators seemed to think. Jim Intermela played well making 13 of his team's 20 points, Derek Letourneau of the Junior league played for Merchants and showed that he was of the calibre of the higher division topping the Merchants score with nine points.

Fashion—Gill 3, Hebb 4, Intermela 13, Horgan, Hill, Lien, Brew. Total 20.

Merchants—Dumas 7, Currie 1, Youngman, Marshall 3, Boulter 5, Anderson 1, Christoff Walsh, Davidson 5, Letourneau 9. Total 31.

Ladies' League

Basketball in this division is improving rapidly. Last night the shooting was excellent and the girls were playing a smart passing and fast breaking game. Dom's nosed out People's by a 22 to 18 score. Rusty Thain of People's topped the field with 10. Here again too many points are being missed on foul shots, People's getting only 2 of 10, and Dom's 4 of 12.

People's.—Dumas, Howe 5, Budnich 3, Windle, Bill, Pottle Thain 10. Total 18.

Dom's—Hamilton 8, Youngman 2, Kildal 5, Currie 7, Hall 2, Paul, Shier, Youngman Total 22.

Junior

Kinsmen took the Scouts by a decisive 27 to 13 score. Henry Blackaby and Ronald McKay getting 11 and 8 for the Kin team. The Junior games are crowd pleasers and more and more fans are coming early to see the fine ball being played in this division. These boys take their basketball very seriously, and for a junior to miss a scheduled practice is just about unheard of at the Civic Centre gym.

Line-ups

Scouts — Webber 4, Scherk Hodgkinson 2, Becker 4, Erikson, Webber, Findlay, Ciccone 1, Kristmanson 2. Total 13.

Kinsmen — H. Blackaby 11, Penneff, W. Blackaby, R. McKay 3, A. Blackaby 3, Letourneau 3, MacIntosh 2, MacPee, White 1. Total 27.
