FRANCOIS LAKER TO PRO BASEBALL
FRANCOIS LAKE—Dorraine Rushton entertained a number of the younger folk at her home Sleepy Hollow on Saturday evening in honor of Beverley Reed on her birthday and Vic Wylito. Vic will shortly leave for the United States to take up professional baseball. The house was full of young folk having a grand time playing games and dancing and singing. After a delicious lunch, the party broke up at 2 o'clock.

SPORTS
BASKETBALLS
Basketball is the big topic of discussion on the local street corners these days and trying to fit in the annual play-offs, the Native tournament and the provincial semi-finals, as well as exhibition series with Alaskan teams presents a major problem to Sports Director Fred Calderone and League Secretary Don Forward of the Civic Centre. New Metlakatla, Alaska, has further complicated things by cancelling their proposed Monday and Tuesday series with the Jets because of player injuries which makes a revision necessary in the Senior League schedule.
What if boils down to now is that there will be no Senior game tonight as a preliminary to the Rotary-Gyro extravaganza. Instead a Junior exhibition game will be played. The next league games will be on Saturday night with Brownwoods meeting Bo-Me-Hi in a do-or-die senior fixture which Brownwoods must win to stay in the running. In the second game of the evening Kinsmen will play High School in the final of their two games for the Junior semi-finals, with Kinsmen carrying a big lead into the

The opener will be an intermediate game between Merchants and Fashion to break their first place tie. As there are trophies for the league champions as well as the play-off winners this year, this is another vital battle for the league championship.
Tuesday night will see one of two alternatives in the Senior League. If Brownwoods win on Saturday, the remaining league games will have to be played to declare a second place team in the senior division. If Brownwoods lose their Saturday game, the play-offs in all divisions will get under way on Tuesday night. Of course to complicate matters a little more, the Basketball Association has invited the All-Alaska Tournament winners, Ketchikan All-Stars, to play here Monday and Tuesday but, as the invitation just went in today, it is doubtful if the game can be arranged on such short notice.
Tonight is the big basketball night for Prince Rupert with the feud between the Rotary Giants and the Gyro Giant Killers squaring off in what should prove to be the battle of the mid-century. According to Bill ("Drop Dead") Lambie, manager of the Gyro team, everything is set in the Giant Killers Camp and it's only a matter of hours now before the Rotary meet their Waterloo.

However, Fighting Manager Tom ("Hot Stuff") Christie of the Rotary is still very confident of a victory for his crew. The line-up for the Rotary Giants is as follows: Trainer "Snowball" Woods-Johnson, Earl "Three Alarm" Becker, Jimmy "Triple Torso" Greer, Lou "Whirlwind" Feisenthal, Ed "Killer" Coughlin, Bob "Broad Beam" Brett, Ode "Catalogue" Odegarde, Trev "The Moose" Hill, Jim "Rough House" Rogerson, Bill "Bear Hide" Scuby, and three other players that manager "Hot Stuff" is saving as a big surprise for the opposition.
The Shrine Club Band will be present to provide musical entertainment and the Rotary Choir will provide vocal interludes.
