Reign, blessed RAIN, Over Prince Rupert's peoples. It is you we LOVE; not the snows, NOBLE ONE.
In the past, Ofttimes, like icicles dripping you've dared Leave us, wet and cold; yet who cared? BRAVE ONE.
Hitherto, The reservoir, you've made climb; the streets, you've made run; At the dam, the low water, you've made swell; all for fun, MISCHIEVOUS ONE.
Likewise, Umbrellas, harshly beaten, have been known to fold Under your unreined powers bold, SUPER ONE.
I dare say, If some have cursed your presence here... P s s t, 'twas because you weren't BEER DEAREST ONE.
RAIN, blessed Rain, Water of Life, upon us shower! We miss you; WE NEED YOU; you are our Light and Power, ONLY ONE.

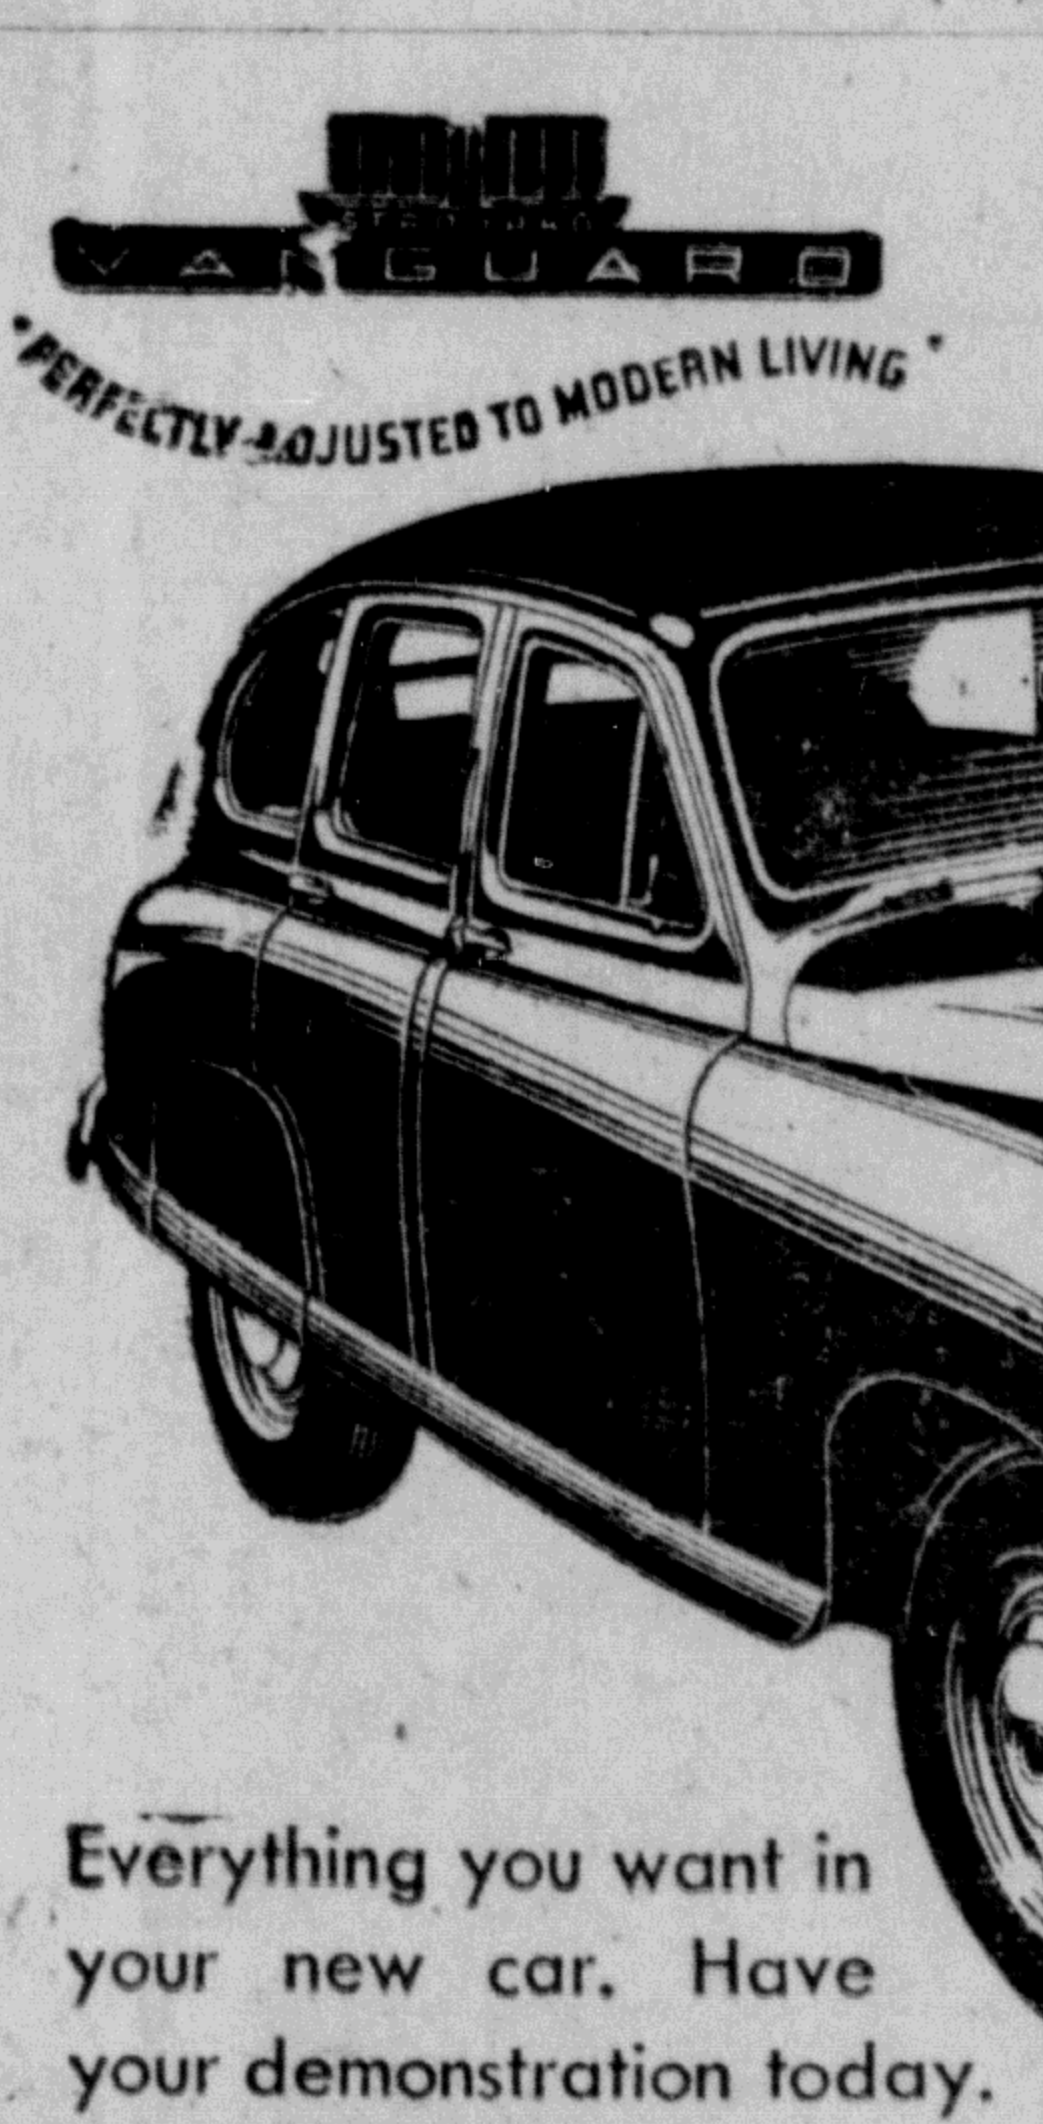

"Look what I just won at the movies, Merton!"

Quiet Family Wedding Rite

Mrs. Diana Blair Becomes Bride of Robert Elkins
Only members of the immediate families of the contracting couple were present at 9 o'clock Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Elkins, 216 Fifth Avenue East, when Mrs. Diana Blair, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Whiting, became the bride of Robert Kendall Elkins, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Elkins, also of this city.
Rev. L. G. Sieber, pastor of First United Church, performed the quiet ceremony before the flower-banked fireplace in the spacious living room.
The bride, wearing a two-piece Jersey wool dress with small matching off the face hat and orchid corsage had for bridesmaid her youngest sister, Miss Anne Whiting, who wore a navy blue dress with pink hat and corsage of pink carnations.
S. C. Elkins was his brother's groomsmen.
Refreshments were served after the ceremony, the handsome wedding cake, duly cut, being set off on a fine cloth by long tapers.
Later in the evening the couple sailed on the Prince George for a ten-day honeymoon trip to Vancouver and Victoria, after which they will make their home at Terrace where the groom is in business.
Member of a pioneer local family, the groom was born in Prince Rupert. He served throughout World War II with the Royal Canadian Navy, most of the time abroad. The bride came here some years ago with her family from Prince George and has been identified with the staff of the city engineer's department. Before she left there, she was presented by City Hall employees with a combination waffle iron and sandwich toaster and an electric clock.
