St. Patrick's Dance Draws 200 — Sell Home And Leave Terrace—Building Sold

Almost 200 people attended the St. Patrick's Day dance which was held in the Oddfellows Hall on Friday night. The Civic Centre orchestra was in good form and dancing continued until the early hours of the morning. Refreshments were served at midnight by the members of the Oddfellows' lodge. Presiding at the door were Jack Barman and Frank Craig. Winners of the door prizes were Fred Douglas and Denis de Kergommeaux. An interesting interlude during the evening was the presentation to Lawrence (Bud) Kirkaldy of a bronson lighter bearing the navy crest and engraved with his name. The presentation was made by Frank Gavan, conductor of the Civic Centre Symphony orchestra of which Bud was a faithful member since its inception. Bud left later on the early morning train and will proceed to Esquimalt where he will continue his naval training on H. M. C. S. "Maden". He has spent the past few weeks on holiday here with his parents Mr. and Mrs. S. N. G. Kirkaldy.

Having sold their home on Lakelse Avenue to Harvey Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Muller and children left on the early morning train for the south where they will reside in California. On Thursday evening, a farewell party was given for them at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Robinson where their friends gathered to wish them God speed and good luck in their new environment.

Alex Gillanders left last week to attend a Co-operative convention in the south.

Miss Dorothy Irving R. N. returned on Thursday morning from Vancouver to which point she accompanied John Lokzyn who had been sent south for treatment following a serious accident at Kalum nearly two weeks ago.

W. Crego has left for Port Edward where he will be employed with the Neison Brothers Fisheries. His wife and family will follow later.

Mr. and Mrs. Han's Koch have returned from a trip to their former home in Germany. Having been away since the beginning of January and finding things worse than they expected in the old country, they are more than pleased to be safely back again in Terrace where they operate the Skeena Hotel.

Bob Parker and Gus Stromdahl of Prince Rupert are spending some time in the district on business. They brought two trucks in to be sold here.

The Volunteer Fire Brigade are holding their Annual Firemen's Ball on the evening of May 5 in the Civic Centre. Part of the
