Chinese Anti-Aircraft Guns Fire Over Manchuria Border

WONSAN AIR FIELD (CP)—A United States Marine Corps spokesman said today that Chinese anti-aircraft guns fired across the Manchurian border late Monday on American planes. He said the planes were operating inside Korea near the border. The Marines' spokesman said the Reds fired at least 40 rounds of heavy anti-aircraft shells, apparently radar-controlled, on two Marine planes.

YANKS TO LEAVE KOREA BY 'XMAS

TOKYO—Most of the United States troops may be out of Korea by Christmas, informed sources said today. The unidentified officials said General Douglas MacArthur expects part of the Eighth Army to start moving to Japan in November. Most other Allied units presumably will be withdrawn as quickly as possible. Policing and occupation duty will be left to South Korea.

Pipe Line Brings Lower Gas Prices

WINNIPEG—As a result of the new pipe line running across the prairies from Alberta, gas prices are being reduced. In Regina it is 4c less and in Winnipeg 2c less.
