CLUB WOMEN ARE PLEASED

Highly delighted with the reception which had been accorded them here and evidently imbued with fine impressions of Prince Rupert, nineteen prominent club women from various parts of the United States passed through here Wednesday afternoon on the Princess Louise returning south after making the Alaska trip.

It was a week ago today that the party was greeted here by Mayor Nora Arnold and others as they passed through the city bound north. Mrs. Arnold, Miss Muriel Vance, Mrs. L. M. Gordon, Theo Collart and Alf Rivett provided cars to drive them around the city and they saw various points of interest. The drive ended up with a visit to
