of the footbridge across the creek at tidewater.
Long reported that the water appeared to be receding this afternoon.

Industrial plants, dependent upon water in one way or another, started closing down during the day as the full meaning of a water stoppage became apparent.

Schools closed because of the lack of water for heating plants.

The Standard Oil Co. tanker Standard Service docked at the company wharf at Cow Bay yesterday to unload a cargo of petroleum products. The vessel was at anchor in the harbor for several hours before going to the dock about 9 o'clock.

RUMMAGE SALE IS POSTPONED

Inclement weather curtailed the attendance yesterday afternoon at a rummage sale to have been held at the Civic Centre of some 700 to 800 articles of amazing variety, representing articles which, over a period of time, have been left at the Centre and remain unclaimed. Accordingly, the sale was postponed until tomorrow afternoon.

Rummage Sale Civic Centre TOMORROW - 2 P.M.
