

AT $20 A MONTH—While most Canadian cities and house rentals that disturb budgets, in Tavistock, with flats go begging for tenants. Five large rooms his common, three-room apartments rent for as low . with, Even at these prices, tenants say rents are COLORFUL CEREMONY FOR COMMONER AND NOBLE—Members of the British royal household are shown in this post-wedding portrait following the colorful wedding ceremony which united 26-year-old Earl of Harewood, nephew of King George, and 22-year-old Marion Stein, Austrian concert planist. The royal family interrupted their Scotland vacation to attend the "white wedding" in St. Mark's church, and thou sands of Britons turned out for the story-book marriage of commoner and nobleman. In this radiophoto are shown left to right: Dowager Queen Mary: Princess Royal Mary, mother of the groom; the Earl of Harewood (George Henry Lascelles); the bride, Countess of Harewood; King George VI; Gerald David Lascelles, brother of the groom and best man; and Queen Elizabeth.

PAKISTAN WOMEN IN NATIONAL GUARD—The women of Pakistan, who now enjoy full political rights, can boast a National Guard unit excelled in efficiency by none of the male regiMINING COAL—WITH GUNS—The United Mine Workers strike in the U.S. has resulted in some bloodshed. At mine No. 4 of the Lingle Coal Company, near Clearfield, Pa., non-union employees of the mine went to work in strip and deep pit mines carrying guns in addition to their other equipment. Here are two of them, one with a pistol in his hip pocket and the other carrying a rifle. A band of U.M.W. men carried on siege of the mine in which two men were seriously injured with shotgun pellets.

25571154

(四月)在二十二百年

MODEL TO CROSS CHANNEL—Seen going through ion is a model yacht six feet long which may cross hannel under radio control. It was designed by Mr. augh, a civil servant interested in wireless control, hight, directing the model by means of the radio the attempt to navigate the yacht across the chanit be made this year—the yacht will be controlled which can operate at a range of three miles. There is plants available for the model's long voyagements. Pakistanian women have abandoned the traditional Indians dres, the sari, for the smart white uniforms of wide trousers and knee length blouses which this all-girl contingent is wearing. This is the nucleus of the women's army, directed by the Begun Liakat Aly Khan, wife of the president of the council. It is one of three similar battalions in East Pakistan, Punjab and Karachi.

NEW MACHINE IS PUT THROUGH PACES BY BRITISH MOTOR CYCLISTS—Seen coming in after a 500-mile run are three of five British mo creyclists who averaged over 90 miles an hour on the Montlhery autodrome, near Paris, France, to prove mettle of new Triumph "Thunderbird" vertical twin-cylinder 650 c.c. machines. At end of the 500 miles, each machine did a final lap at over 100 miles an hour. Riders are, from left: Bob Manns, Len J. Bayliss and Alex Scobie.

LITTLE STONE STALLS COMMERCE—Stone thrown up by a ship's propellor is believed cause of more than 24-hour tie-up of traffic through the canal at Cornwall Ont. This air photo shows ships immobilized in the canal. More than 35 other vessels we'e anchored in the St. Lawrence river. The stone damaged the massive gates on Lock 15. New gates were installed.

PEGIN ATOMIC ENERGY TALKS—Representatives of the United States, Great Britain and Canada are shown as they began a series of "exploratory" discussions in Washington, on joint research and development of atomic energy. Left to right: British Ambassador Oliver Franks; U.S. Assistant Secretary of State J. E. Webb: and Canadian Commerce Minister C. D. Howe. In rear are Sir Derick Hoyer Millar (left), British minister to the U.S.; William Webster, deputy to the secretary of defence for atomic matters; and Summer Pike, acting chairman of the atomic energy commission.

ROMANCE RUMORS FOLLOW PRINCESS—Princess Margaret is shown as she appeared at a hunt meet in Perth, Scotand, with 23-year -old Lord Ogilvy, heir of the Earl fo Arlie. The princess motored from Balmoral to attend the races with the young lord, an event which was enough to set romance rumors flying.