SMALL-TOWN SPIRIT PROVIDES NEW HOME FOR FAMILY OF ELEVEN-On March 17, St. Patrick's Day, Paul Brunette, his wife and nine children were made homeless when a fire burned their frame house to its foundations. But today the family, who arrived in Belleville, Ont., from Montreal only 18 months ago, have a new house, thanks to the work of neighbors who in 12 hours erected the building and contributed to the cost of new furnishings. Here Paul Brunette and seven of his nine children pose happily in section of their brand new home. Youngsters reading from left are: Pauline, 16; Lucille, 12; Roger, 9; Helen, 7; Lise, 6; Robert, 4; and Jacqueline, 2. The other two youngsters not shown are John, 14, Denise, 11. Children had great time lending hand while home was being built.

The board recommended that a 12 percent wage increase be given for all classes of firemen with the exception of probationers, whose wage scale remains at the $170 a month level set by the 1948 agreement.

City council's reaction to the board's decision will be learned Monday night when the aldermen formally consider it.

Be Decided in Party Meeting

Premier's Appeal Expected to be Heeded -40 Resolutions

VANCOUVER (CP)-Election talk was in the air today as five hundred delegates sat down at the opening of the two-day British Columbia Liberal Association convention. At the convention the fate of the coalition is expected to be decided and announcement of the election date is expected to follow within a few days. Much will depend upon the decision of the federal government and its election plans.

June 27 or 28 has been mentioned as a probable election date for British Columbia but this is based on the belief that the federal election will not be called until fall, possibly October. McLaren of Victoria was instant-
