"Black Hand" Is Exciting

Gripping drama of a young Italian who comes to America early in the century to avenge the murder of his father comes to the screen of the Capitol Theatre here from Monday to Wednesday next in "Black Hand," the feature picture for these days. Gene Kelly has the principal role and other leading members of the cast are Theresa Celli and J. Carroll Nash.

"The Black Hand" will be remembered as an underworld organization in New York which preyed upon new immigrants. Teresa Celli is Kelly's childhood sweetheart whose pleas he ignores. J. Carroll Nash is a friendly policeman who also endeavours to advise him. A series of exciting events culminates in a dramatic trial and a desperate chase and hand to hand fight.

The hero comes through without committing crime and is reunited at the end with his pretty sweetheart.

SPRING SALE IS BRIGHT SUCCESS

Beautifully decorated with daffodils and harmonizing spring colors, the Women's Auxiliary of St. Peter's Anglican Church held a highly successful spring sale in the parish hall Thursday afternoon. Archdeacon E. D. Hodson opened the affair and Mrs. A. J. Croxford, president of the Evening Branch, received the many guests.

Mrs. W. B. Skinner and Mrs. J. W. Moorehouse were in charge of the tea room, assisted by Mrs. Darrow Gomez and Mrs. D. Gable. The serviteurs were Mrs. Robert Kelsey, Mrs. William McLean, Mrs. Wilfrid Taylor, Mrs. James Mellor and Mrs. H. A. Thorsteinsson. Acting as cashier was Mrs. W. D. Griffiths.

In charge of other departments were:

Home Cooking — Mrs. A. E. Taylor, Mrs. E. D. Hodson and Mrs. David Owens.

Sewing — Mrs. William Davidson and Mrs. H. V. Tattersall.

Candy — Mrs. J. Prince and Mrs. D. Sievert.

About $105 was realized

"Smile, dear."

Waterfront -- Whiffs

Waterfront Mourns Passing Of Esteemed Figure—And Now The Halibut Season
Prince Rupert waterfront during the past week has mourned one of its best known and most esteemed figures—Jack Boddie, long time chief engineer of the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co., whose sudden death on Sunday last came as a shock to many friends. There are not so many left now who were identified with the waterfront and the fisheries in Prince Rupert as long as Mr. Boddie had been. Not only as chief engineer and later marine superintendent as well of the "Cold Storage" was he a prominent figure. He was also well known as a yachtman in his earlier days and had much to do with the organization of the Prince Rupert Swimming Club and the development of the Salt Lake resort. His quiet but stout and sound personality will be missed.

Vessels of the halibut fleet will be heading again for the banks during the coming week with the season, as set by the International Fisheries Commission, due to commence on May 1, a week from Monday. Process of departure and pattern of operation will be much the same this year as in previous seasons. There will be the usual quick clean-up, it is supposed, of the quota in Area No. 2, which is now only a matter of a few weeks, and, ere June is passed, it will, no doubt, be exhausted, leaving the smaller vessels to turn to some other line of endeavour while the larger vessels proceed to Area No. 3. The past week has seen a number of vessels arrive from Vancouver on their way to the grounds.

Back in service after a week's withdrawal, Union steamer Camosun, Capt. Harry McLean, arrived in port at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon from Vancouver and waypoints, sailing at 11 p.m. for south Queen Charlotte Island points whence she will return here tomorrow evening southbound. The Camosun had a good-sized list of passengers. Among them were a number of delegates returning to this area from the annual convention of the Native Brotherhood of British Columbia which was held at Bella Bella during the past week.

Moose Women's Sale Is Success

Very successful was a spring tea and novelty sale held by the Women of the Moose in the new temple on Wednesday, Mrs. R. B. Skinner was general convener and many guests were received by Mrs. Harold Muncy, the senior regent.

Mrs. George Howe and Mrs. O. Tweed presided at the pouring tables and the serviteurs were Mrs. C. McIntyre, Mrs. H. R. D. Wilson, Mrs. A. G. Hinton and Mrs. R. Armstrong. In charge of the kitchen were Mrs. Giske, Mrs. O. Stegavig, Mrs. B. J. Bacon, Mrs. P. Johnson and Mrs. Leo Foster.

Conducting the novelty sale were Mrs. C. Lundstrom, Mrs. Jack Hoskins and Mrs. A. S. Hamilton, and Mrs. E. Blair. The home cooking sale was in charge of Mrs. J. Taylor, Mrs. C. Mattson, Mrs. H. Harrison and Mrs. C. Love. Candy Sale was carried on by Mrs. P. Kilborn, Mrs. Bell and Mrs. William Murray.

Several raffles were operated by Mrs. J. Kasper, Mrs. G. Halstad, Mrs. Percy Bond and Mrs. E. Bond with the winners as follows:

- Chenille bedspread, J. Webster, No. 521.
- Ash Stand, A. Isaacson, No. 72.
- Card Table, Emily Steenberg, No. 428.
- Cushion, Shane Murray, No. 55.
- Cake, Miss Bea Marshall, No. 31.
- Candy, Mrs. T. Christoff, No. 65.
- Crocheted basket, Miss Shirley Nelson, No. 49.
