LOOKS FOR BOOM IN BUILDING HERE

In anticipation of an early boom of building activity in Prince Rupert, Northwest Construction Co. Ltd., through its managing director, Neil G. Kingston, announces the addition to the staff of Jack Martin, formerly of Vancouver, who will assume the position of general superintendent for the company. Mr. Martin is well known in Vancouver as an expert on apartment and store design and has been identified with major projects in that area. A man of Mr. Martin's calibre is particularly welcome in the city since it is certain that Prince Rupert will in the near future see several major construction projects. Mr. Martin will shortly be joined by his family and will take up residence in the city.
