But the rewards of playing in pictures are not enough for anyone who is lost away from the theatre, he says. He was not happy there, and he voluntarily dissolved his studio affiliation to gamble in an unknown play on Broadway.

It paid off. "Leland Hayward came to my house one night and asked me to read Anderson's new play," said Harrison.

REHEARSALS BEGAN WELL

Rehearsals began well enough, Harrison recalled, 'butas with every play there were times when everybody wanted to jump into the river.
