...ght of superannuated ...s, 30 per cent of whom ...w receiving less than $40 ...nth, was made known to ...rs of the Prince Rupert ...t Teachers' Association ...D. Ovans, British Columbia Teachers' Federation general secretary, at a meeting last night. The situation has resulted in a decision by the B.C. Teachers' Federation executive to establish an emergency welfare fund. B.C. teachers will be asked to contribute $.150 a month for three months.

Representations on behalf of these pensioners were made by the Federation to provincial authorities last May but no action was taken. Immediate action has been taken pending further representations at Victoria. Part of the fund will be used to help practising teachers who are in need as a result of lengthy illness.

FAMOUS ACTRESS IS VERSATILE

By MARK BARRON

NEW YORK, (AP)—Beatrice Lillie is a skilled artist of the Broadway and London theatres who seldom knows, when she makes an entrance, just what particular door will be her exit offstage.

Her audiences, such as those which have been delighted by her pert antics in "Inside U.S.A.," have not been particularly curious about her exits. They have demonstrated for months that they want her to stay onstage.

Aside from the theatre, Miss Lillie said backstage the other day, she made one entrance that led her to a door to another career, entirely apart from her years of theatrical triumphs. She's a portrait painter, "and a very, very good one, too," she admits without urging.

"In my house in London," she said, "I had some trouble with the door knobs on the doors of several rooms. So I went to a hardware store.

"I couldn't find any of the iron door knobs which have impressions of pictures on them as if they had been carved. But, I did find some door knobs with a smooth, white enamel surface. The hardware man told me that some of his customers painted pictures on them. I bought some paints, bought a book on how to be an artist and started to paint.

"I thought I was pretty good, so I got some canvas, an easel and went to work. Now I'm in business and I've already sold two paintings. So far I've been fairly well orthodox in my technique. None of the Dali or impressionistic school for me. But, I'm willing to try. And I probably will."

Miss Lillie, although born in Toronto, is probably the most British comedienne on Broadway. She said she had no idea how her name ever came up when they were casting the Arthur Schwartz-Howard Dietz musical.

"I've jumped back and forth across the Atlantic in so many shows," she said, "that while I'm still looked upon here as typically British, in Haymarket I am sometimes referred to as 'that American.'

Within a few weeks Miss Lillie is closing her Broadway run in "Inside U.S.A." and going with in on a coast-to-coast tour.

"I suppose by the next time I get back to London," she said "they will be calling me 'That Texan' or 'That Californian' or 'that Brooklyn Bum.'"

HOW CAN I ? ? ?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I test the heat of an iron?

A. One good way is to fold a newspaper and sprinkle a little salt on it. In this way an iron can be tested and cleaned at the same time. Don't use the ironing board cover to test the heat, or it will soon be scorched and ruined.

Q. How can I prevent the canary from spattering seed all over the floor when feeding?

A. Make a cheesecloth bag with an elastic and pull this over the bottom of the cage just covering the feed cups.

Q. How can I prevent the shells of eggs from cracking when boiling them?

A. This will not happen if the eggs are dipped into cold water immediately before putting them into the boiling water.

SUCCESSFUL CHRISTIAN LIFE

(By Rev. F. Antrobus, First Baptist Church)

There are two classes of persons who start out in the Christian life: those who make a complete or partial failure of it and those who make a complete success of it. Is it possible to point out a plain pathway in which anyone who will can walk and following which will make success absolutely sure? I believe in the Scriptures we have the simple instructions which will make success in the Christian life sure.

We must first begin right. A right beginning is to take Christ as your Saviour who died for your sins (John 1:12). Trust the whole matter of your forgiveness to Him, (2. Cor. 5:21). It is in this first step that many make a mistake. They think if they are good God will forgive them because of Christ's death plus their goodness. Then take Him as your Deliverer from the power of sin day by day. Trust Him to do it! Take Him as your Master! Don't seek to guide your own life! Many fail, because they shrink back from this entire surrender. They wish to serve Jesus with half their heart and part of themselves and their possessions. It is a wretched life of stumbling and failure, this life of half-heartedness! There is joy, peace and victory and usefulness only in being out-and-out for Christ.

We must confess Christ openly before men (Rom.10:10), and (Matt.10:32). To make the greatest success in the Christian life, we should confess Christ at every opportunity—in the home, at school, at work, in church, everywhere. An old preacher once said, "Make a great deal of Christ and He will make a great deal of you!" How many backsliders fall away from Christ at this point?

Then too we must study His word (Peter 2:2). The Word of God is the nourishment for your new life. Many are back in the world through neglect of daily private Bible reading and daily private prayer for the two go together. Have set times regularly for prayer, like Daniel (Psalm 55:17). Begin the day with thanksgiving and prayer and close it the same way. Make special prayer when tempted. This is the joyful life, free from care.

Be sure to go to work for Christ and keep looking for more and do it out of love for Him. The working Christian is the happy one, and, the more we do for Him, the more we receive from Him. Then give largely. Success and growth in the Christian life depends on few things more than upon liberal giving. A stingy Christian cannot be a growing one. It is wonderful how a Christian man begins to grow when he begins to give. Give systematically and set aside a fixed proportion of all your goods. A tenth is a good proportion to begin with.

Finally, Keep pushing on (Phil.3:13,14). Press toward the mark for the prize. Forget the sins and failures of the past: confess them and He is faithful and just to forgive: believe that and press on. Forget the achievements and victories of the past too and press on to greater. A larger life lies ahead. To believe we have already obtained and to be contented and puffed up over it, will lead to backsliding (Eph. 4:13).

Young Christian friends and older Christians, the road to certain success in the Christian life is plain enough. Shall we take it? These truths are familiar, but are we practising them? May the Lord guide you!

How to buy a DIAMOND

Their value depends on many things.

We often have a chance to buy diamonds of so poor a quality we would not offer them to our customers.

They should be pure and clear in color without cloudiness or tint.

The cutting of their 58 little facets should be well done.

Their shape should be well proportioned. They should have no flaws or spots.

Some large stones are not worth as much as others half the size.

One of our customers brought in a diamond for resetting which we sold over 30 years ago and it was amazing how the value had increased.

We pride ourselves that we sell a quality so good that there will never be any fault to find.
