FRANCOIS LAKE IS FROZEN OVER

FRANCOIS LAKE—On Saturday last there was still open water a little east of the Landing although all the lake to the west is frozen. On Saturday afternoon Peter Neave crossed on the ice on skates from Southbank to Northbank, returning on Sunday afternoon, and so far is the only one to cross. He carried a pike pole and an axe, and tested the depth of the ice from time to time on the way across. He is working with P. D. Kelly at Southbank.

A year-old trumpeter swan is living on the ice not far from the Landing and the people living by the lake from Fred Gardiner's to the J. P. Ranch are putting out food for it. It seems quite contented and spends most of its time swimming in the small open places left. Sometimes it flies around but returns to the lakeshore.

Grace Miller (nee Snyder), who was here last year writes that she had quite a thrill when listening to the radio in her home near Lewiston, Idaho, when she heard about little Colleen Mills' cat getting his tail frozen to a rock that he was sitting on beside the lake.

Barbara Grainger returned to her home at Nadina on Saturday. She has been staying with Mrs. Jones for a few weeks.

One of the Beach trucks loaded with bagged timothy seed tipped over on its way from the cleaning plant here to Burns Lake. The bags fell in the deep snow and it was necessary for another truck to come out and it was loaded on the other truck.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Reed and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Neave were week-end visitors in Prince George. They travelled in the Reed station wagon and report that the roads were in perfect condition.
