Horace Duhamel, pioneer barber of Prince Rupert, and Mrs. Duhamel are living in Kitsilano, Vancouver, to which city they moved about two years ago, after selling their business here. WHAT ARE WE TRYING TO DO?

We try to have what people want. We want our goods as good as you expect them to be according to the price you pay. We try to sell well known goods at the prices advertised all over Canada. Community silver, Bulova and Gruen watches Parker and Waterman pens are examples. We sell Big Ben clocks at the same price as the jeweller in Peterborough where they are made. We try to be earliest with the latest new goods. We are trying to build a reputation for reliability and service. No high pressure: no marking up goods to give a discount off. Just plain reasonable profit.

Good Weather For Important Events

The Indian summer weather that delighted Prince Rupert Tuesday and Wednesday night continued through to this morning and appeared to be pretty general over most of the province. The two important events in the south—opening of the Hope-Princeton Highway, and arrival of Premier Nehru and party, of India in Vancouver were favored the best in the way of weather.

"ROPE OF SAND" IS EXCITING

Suspense-Packed Adventure In Rugged Diamond Country

Adventure on a rugged and suspenseful scale comes with the presentation of "Rope of Sand," which arrives today at the Capitol Theatre. The film co-stars Burt Lancaster, Paul Henreid, Claude Rains and Peter Lorre and introduces the luscious Parisienne, Corinne Calvet. The distinguished character actor, Sam Jaffe, has the top featured role. "Rope of Sand" is set in the diamond country of South Africa. The story concerns the determined efforts of Lancaster, former hunting guide, to recover a cache of stolen diamonds, hidden in the forbidden area of the diamond city. Henreid, who will be seen as the viciously cruel supervisor of the city, not only wants to get those jewels, but wants to get Lancaster, as well. Sworn enemies, the two men are additionally antagonistic because of their mutual attraction to Miss Calvet. She has been hired by Rains, large stockholder in the mines, to try to find out from Lancaster the location of the diamonds.

The intrigue set in motion by these conflicting forces and the rugged, fight-to-the-death action is said to pack "Rope of Sand" with thrills aplenty.
