B.C. GOLFERS
MAY WITHDRAW

VANCOUVER (C)—Jock McKinnon, president of the British Columbia section of the Canadian Professional Golfers' Association, said last night that the withdrawal of the section from the Canadian association is possible. He said that British Columbia golfers are dissatisfied with plans to hold the Canadian Open and C.P.G.A. open at widely separated times. Formerly, they held one immediately after the other.

GYROS CRUISE IN CHATHAM SOUND

Gyros, visiting here for the District 4 convention, cruised for six hours last evening aboard the steamer Chilcotin into Chatham Sound as far as Triple Island. Accompanying the delegates were the local Gyros and the party numbered 150 or more in all. It was a delightful sail into the west, a colorful sunset adding to the scenic charm. The outing proved one of the highlights of the convention entertainment program. Refreshments which were to have been used on a beach party, which was cancelled when weather seemed somewhat unsettled earlier in the day, were simply transferred to the steamer and it was a picnic afloat.

Morning and afternoon business sessions, including presentation of reports by individual clubs, occupied the Gyros yesterday with separate luncheons for the men and the ladies. While the men, after meeting at the home of Orme Stuart, had their stunt luncheon, the principal feature for which was provided by Bill Bross and the Vancouver, Washington delegation, the ladies were entertained at luncheon aboard the Chilcotin with Capt. Harry McLean playing the part of a perfect host. Business sessions continued this morning when International President Leon Isaksen of Madison, Wisconsin was heard. This afternoon a feature event will be the opening of the club's new $10,000 swimming pool at McClymont Park. District Governor Wilson Hunt, on behalf of the local club, turning over the deed to Mayor Arnold.

Tonight the convention proceedings will conclude with a reception in the community at the Civic Centre followed by the District Governor's ball. At 1 a.m. the visit here ends with the sailing of the cotin on her return to Vancouver.

CALVERT 1622

Famous Families

OGDEN 1783

Isaac Ogden, New England-born Empire Loyalist, came to Montreal in 1783. He was appointed Judge of the Admiralty Court and later Judge of the Superior Court. His son, Charles Richard, a lawyer, was Attorney-General for Lower Canada from 1833 to 1842. Another son, Peter Skene, associate of fur trader John Jacob Astor, was a partner in the North West Company and, on its amalgamation with the Hudson's Bay Company, became Chief Factor at Fort St. James. Truly a distinguished Canadian family.

Great Families Create Great Nations

CALVERT, head of the famous Calvert family, distinguished English statesman and Secretary of State to King James I, founded pioneer colonies in Newfoundland and Maryland early in the 17th Century.

In the New World, Calvert's descendants advocated friendly trade relations with the Indians. They also fostered principles of democratic freedom and religious tolerance among their settlers. These Calvert ideals were perpetuated down through the succeeding generations of the Calvert family.

The family is the corner-stone upon which great nations are built. Let each of us strive to promote within the great Canadian family the same concepts of freedom and tolerance pioneered by the Calvert family over three hundred years ago.
