government from Victoria Other witnesses were to be present but further adjournment was asked by the accused. Mc-Knight had previously requested remands and, in granting another, the magistrate told the two men that the desire for any further adjournments after next Wednesday, should be conveyed to city police well in advance so that the crown will not be caused too much inconvenience.

During the hearing of the Gordon & Anderson breaking and entering charge. Dr. Davis testified that imprints on a yellow ledger sheet and envelope were identical to the sole pattern of a left gum boot alleged to have been worn by one of the accused. Evidence produced during the afternoon hearing into the $230 Rance and Hardy safecracking job also alleged to have been committed December 24, consisted of piece of wood with a foot print related to the pattern of a Athletics 2. left gumboot. A pair of grey trousers was produced and the Doctor testified that safe ball- bions 1 ast found on the safe door was similar to material found in the s cuffs of the trousers. A piece of by Prosecutor T. W. Dr. Davis also testified that after arrival here Monday, he was shown the safe door, wood shelving and a steel bar four to four and onehalf feet long. Inspection of these articles, the Doctor said. were made by a magnifying glass and it was found that markings were similar to the spread of threading on the bar. These articles will be taken by the Doctor for instrumental examination tests on his return to Victoria today.

The third charge, also hear during the atternoon hearing, was the breaking and entering of Philpott and Evitt where $17 | an money and postage stamps is Heged to have been stolen.

On the safe door, in the latte |. remises, soap was found. The grey trousers were again produced. The Doctor testified that soap found in the rear nocke' of the treuse's corresponded to the material found on the safe He added the soan container a "builder". A section of floor was produced as crown evidence and it was expressed by Dr. Dayis that markings on it were of the same type as others made by the gum boots. But unlike the others, this print was made by the right boot.

Barring any further adjournments, the cases will go ahead next Wednesday.
