Major Warrender spoke of Salvation Army work with particular reference to the forthcoming Red Shield drive and he also showed an interesting moving picture.

PIONEER SCHOOL GIRL REVISITS

Mrs. Paul Delaney, who started school in Prince Rupert during the very early days and attended King Edward School when it was first built, revisited Prince Rupert on Tuesday after nearly forty years. The former Marguerite Camozzi, Mrs. Delaney was here with her husband, a Seattle architect, making the round trip aboard the steamer Chilcotin which was in port on an Alaskan cruise. She was the daughter of the late Sam Camozzi who came here in 1909, invested heavily in real estate at that time and built the old Grandview Hotel on First Avenue. The family left here in 1913 to reside in Seattle and it was there that Sam Camozzi died years ago. Mrs. Delaney teaches languages in a Seattle high school.

Modern Etiquette

Q. How long should a wedding ring be worn after the husband has died?
A. A widow continues to wear the wedding ring during her lifetime, unless she becomes engaged to marry a second time. Following the announcement of her engagement, she ceases to wear her first wedding ring.

Q. Should a stenographer rise when visitors to the office approach her desk?
A. Not necessarily. She would do so for a stranger or an important person, but not to greet one who comes to the office constantly.

Q. Is it correct to put broken crackers into soup?
A. Crackers are never broken into the soup.

SURGEON REMOVES OWN APPENDIX—Here's an unusual photo made as Dr. George C. Balderston, 30, of Telluride, Colo., removed his own appendix while Dr. Richard G. Gladman of Uravan, Colo., stood by. Ten hours after the surgery, Dr. Balderston decided he was an "ambulatory patient" and got up. He said he performed the operation to get the "patient's attitude."

The city ambulance made a trip to Port Edward yesterday to bring a patient, Mrs. Johnson, to the Prince Rupert General Hospital.

Nels Robinson, a resident of the Pioneers' Home, was taken to hospital last evening by the city ambulance as a precautionary measure. He was suffering from a heart condition, the result of a fan attack of influenza.

MARGARET BRAIN WANTS TO MARRY

An interview with Miss Margaret Brain, who won the distinction of being Miss P.N.E. of 1948, with her portrait, appears in the society columns of the Vancouver Sun. She told her interviewer that winning the title proved invaluable in forming her sense of values and in determining what she wanted out of life, which is marriage and a home. She expects to become Mrs. Vernon Ciccone early next year.
