The Library of Parliament in Ottawa contains 600,000 volumes. The library was the only part of the legislative buildings not destroyed in the 1916 fire.

In 1939 Canada's public debt was $7017 million; in 1949 it was estimated to be $22,500 million.

Blackwood On Bridge

By Easley Blackwood

I have been discussing the mathematical considerations in the bidding of small slams. Briefly I have pointed out that:

When you are not vulnerable you should attempt slam only if the odds in favor of success are better than even.

When both sides are vulnerable you can attempt slam on slightly riskier holdings.

When you are vulnerable and opponents are not, the possible gains are greater than the possible losses and you should try for slam even though the chance for success is slightly less than even.

This is good advice and will serve you well in the long run.

Don't be discouraged when you are set on an apparently easy slam by an unfortunate division of the opposing cards or by a brilliant defensive play.

South dealer
Both sides vulnerable

North (Mr. Masters)
S—A Q 10 8 5
H—Q J 8 4
D—J 10 5
C—A

West (Mr. Abel)
S—9 3
H—10 7 3 2
D—6 2
C—Q J 10 7 4

East (Mr. Champion)
S—K J 7 4 2
H—9
D—A 9 3
C—8 5 3 2

South (Mr. Dale)
S—6
H—A K 6 5
D—K Q 8 7 4
C—K 9 6

The bidding:

| South | West | North | East |
|---|---|---|---|
| 1 H | Pass | 1 S | Pass |
| 2 D | Pass | 4 H | Pass |
| 4 NT | Pass | 5 H | Pass |
| 6 H | All pass | | |

Look at today's hand. Wouldn't you want to be in a six heart contract—especially if you could see only the North-South cards?

Mr. Abel opened the queen of clubs which dummy's ace won. A heart was led to the ace and Mr. Dale didn't like the looks of Mr. Champion's nine spot. He now led the nine of clubs and trumped in dummy with the eight of hearts. The queen and jack of hearts won the next two tricks, Mr. Champion discarding two small clubs.

On the lead of the five of diamonds from dummy Mr. Champion ducked and Mr. Dale won with the king. He picked up Mr. Abel's last trump but it took his own last trump to do it.

When a small diamond was led to the ten in dummy, Mr. Champion made the key play. He ducked again. The last diamond was now led from dummy and Mr. Champion won with the ace and led the king of spades.

Mr. Dale had all good cards but couldn't get to them and had to concede a spade loser for down one.

There was nothing wrong with this contract—just give an orchid to Mr. Champion for his fine defence.

Prince Rupert Club Move Is Considered

The top floor of the former Canadian Legion building on Third Avenue might be taken over by the Prince Rupert Club now occupying premises on Second Avenue at Third Street. The proposition is still in the preliminary stage, a club official said today, being merely under consideration.

As for the first floor, the leasing of this space has been suggested but nothing definte appears to be known. A mail order office has been mentioned.
