

SMITHERS CLEAN-UP

Good Job Done By Junior Chamber of Commerce
SMITHERS—Carol Robinson and David Oulton were first and second prize winners in the boys' class, with Sharon Morrison and Jerry Olsen heading the girls' class, in this week's distribution of awards to school children assisting in the Junior Chamber of Commerce clean-up campaign.

Prizes were distributed at the school by Carl Spicer who, with Alf Quanstrom and Alex Holder, directed the "School Contest." An even score of other children won a dollar bill each, as follows:

Tannis Bottomley, Ann Hoskins, Margaret Davidson, Harvey Bergen, Judy Chapman, Leonard Fransen, Jean Bennett, Arthur Dunn, John Laidlaw, Sharon O'Neill, Sam Casler, Dorothy Hibbard, Beverly Kerr, Violet Bazil, Brian Collison, Sharon Herman, Edith McKenzie, Hector Moore and Marjorie Simpson.

Constable Ed. Corron, with his loud speaker system, announced the start of the clean-up campaign.
As a result children, adults, singly and in working bees, cleaned up numberless gardens, vacant lots, old rubbish piles and back alleys, and generally greatly improved the look of the village.

Miss Jean Jordan Becomes Bride of Albert Harrison
TERRACE — A very pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Matthew's church on Wednesday afternoon, when Jean Josephine Jordan became the bride of Albert James Harrison at a double ring ceremony. Rev. P. Mallet officiated.
Lovely in a gown of white figured satin with bustle back, fitted sleeves and net yoke, the bride was given in marriage by her grandfather O. T. Sundal. Her veil was train length and was held in place with a coronet of blossom. Her bouquet was of red tulips and white narcissi.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Alec Houlden in a pink sheer gown with short sleeves and a net overskirt. Her headdress was made of small pink velvet flowers and a pink fingertip veil. She carried a bouquet of pink tulips, white narcissi and bluebells.
Elizabeth Haugland, in a blue sheer gown, was bridesmaid. Her headdress was of small blue velvet flowers and a blue fingertip veil. She also carried a bouquet of pink tulips, narcissi and bluebells.
Two little flower girls carried baskets of flowers. Marilyn Johnstone was in blue with a white hat and Jean Smith was all in pink.
Alec Houlden attended the groom and the ushers were Parker Mills and Robert Cooper. Yellow tulips and lilac adorned the altar and organ. Playing the nuptial music was Miss Yvonne Larsen and Mrs. Lloyd Johnstone sang "Because" during the signing of the register. Pictures were taken by Brock Norberg.

Tulips in silver baskets decorated the table at the Silver Tip dining room where a family reception was held. A toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. Mallet and was responded to by the groom. A beautifully decorated wedding cake, made and decorated by Mrs. C. Cauchers was cut with due ceremony by the bride.
In the evening a wedding dance was held in the Oulows' Hall where the friends of the young couple gathered to wish them happiness and to dance to the music of local talent.

The honeymoon will be at the Johnstone cottage, Lakelse Lake, after which the young couple will make home in town.
