INJURED TERRACE QUEEN HONORED

TERRACE—Tuesday being the birthday of Terrace's May Queen, Marjorie Thomas, the local Oddfellows made arrangements to have a birthday party for her in the ward at St. Paul's Hospital, Vancouver, where she lies recovering from injuries received in a traffic accident here a few weeks ago. Jack Bunting, who left Terrace on Saturday for the south, has charge of arrangements. Birthday greetings were also sent to her in a telegram from the teachers and children of the elementary school.

FINED $600 ON LIQUOR CHARGE

In city police court Wednesday, Nick Bokachytz was fined $300 or three months in jail on each of two charges of selling liquor to minors after pleading guilty before Magistrate W. D. Vance. The prison sentences are to run consecutively if the fines are not paid. Bokachytz was a waiter in a downtown beer parlor. James A. Turner, an employee of another hotel, had sentence reserved after he had been found guilty on two charges of supplying liquor to minors yesterday. Mr. Vance withheld sentence until Friday morning.
